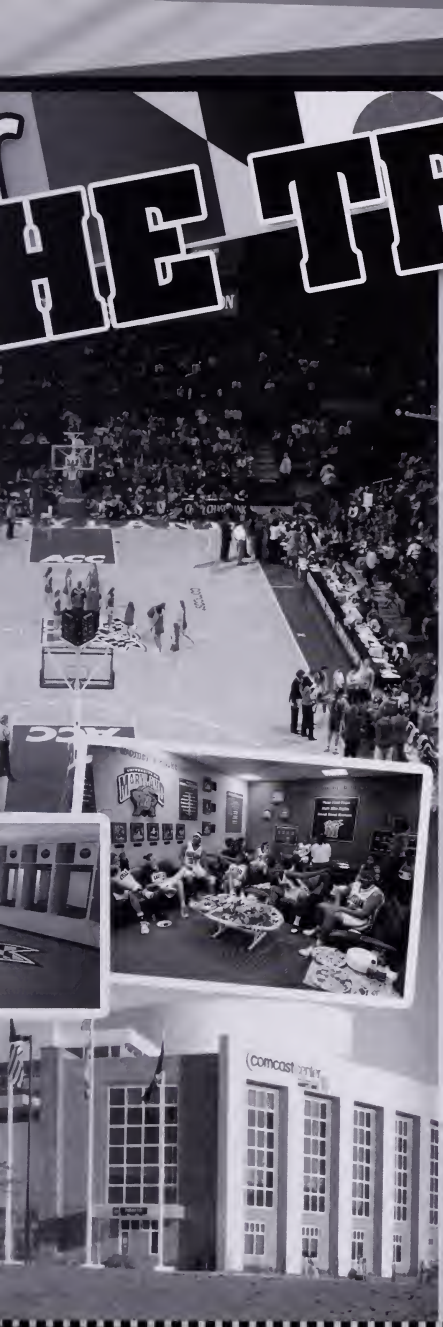
THE TERPS



Maryland's new home for Terrapin Athletics was completed in the fall of 2002, and has already provided three seasons of toppled attendance records and memories on the hardwood. Comcast Center provides a seating capacity of 17, 950 fans for basketball, and serves as a campus site for university special events and select community events.

The Terrapins' first public basketball event was its 2002 Midnight Madness celebration, which has grown to one of the premiere student events of the academic year. The women's basketball team holds the honor of playing the first-official game in Comcast Center, an 80-72 victory over Loyola on Nov. 22, 2002, also the first game of the Brenda Frese era.

Since its first season, attendance has increased at women's basketball games, including the 2004-05 season when the school's all-time attendance record was shattered as 71,087 fans attended 17 games, 33,000 more than the previous year.

Comcast Center is also the site of two of the top three largest crowds in ACC women's basketball history. The Terps set the conference's women's basketball single-game record drawing 17,243 fans to their game versus Duke on Feb. 13, 2005. In the previous season, the Terps also had 13,446 fans in the stands on Feb. 22, 2004, the third-largest crowd in ACC women's basketball history. It's per game average of 4,182 fans in 17 games in 2004-05 is also a school record. In each of the three seasons the Terps have played in their new home, they have improved in attendance, cracking the top 25 in 2004-05, for the 24th-best average attendance in the nation.

Comcast Center also houses the university's athletics administration offices and includes a 7,000-square-foot Academic Support Center, providing an enhanced study atmosphere for the school's near-750 student-athletes on 27 teams. An additional 1,500-seat gymnasium serves as home to the Terps' volleyball, gymnastics, and wrestling teams, Nextel Heritage Hall multi-purpose room is equipped to host banquets, press conferences, meetings and serve as a pre-game restaurant suite overlooking the competition arena and 20 suites provide enhanced viewing and entertainment capabilities for Maryland fans.

Comcast Center is an excellent place for alumni and fans to enjoy their favorite sports and share in their common Terrapin spirit. Visitors can learn about the men and women who have forged the Maryland Athletics program among the nation's elite as they stroll through the Terrapin Walk of Fame and History. The Terrapin Team Store, located just off the soaring three-level atrium lobby, allows visitors to outfit their pride. Maryland has once again reclaimed the status of having the best student activities center and basketball arena in the country.

NO BETTER PLACE TO BE

There is no better place to be than the University of Maryland, College Park. With its top-ranked academic programs, nationally recognized faculty, diverse population, and lush 1,580-acre campus located between Washington, D.C., and Baltimore, Md., it's no wonder the University of Maryland is a sought-after destination for some of the state's — and the country's — best and brightest students.

Attracting them are some 111 majors and some of the highest-ranked programs in the country. As of 2005, 79 programs rank in the Top 25 nationally and 51 programs are in the Top 15. For instance, in the latest U.S. News & World Report undergraduate rankings, the University of Maryland's business school was rated 22nd nationally, while the engineering school was ranked 22nd. In graduate school rankings, the A. James Clark School of Engineering, the School of Public Affairs, the College of Behavioral & Social Sciences, the Robert H. Smith School of Business and the College of Education all had specialties listed among the Top 25 in the nation, according to U.S. News & World Report.

High-tech, engineering, and service industries thrive in close proximity to the campus, offering a wide spectrum of internships, work-study opportunities and career choices for students. And, the campus is surrounded by the dynamic cultural opportunities that only a major metropolitan area can provide.

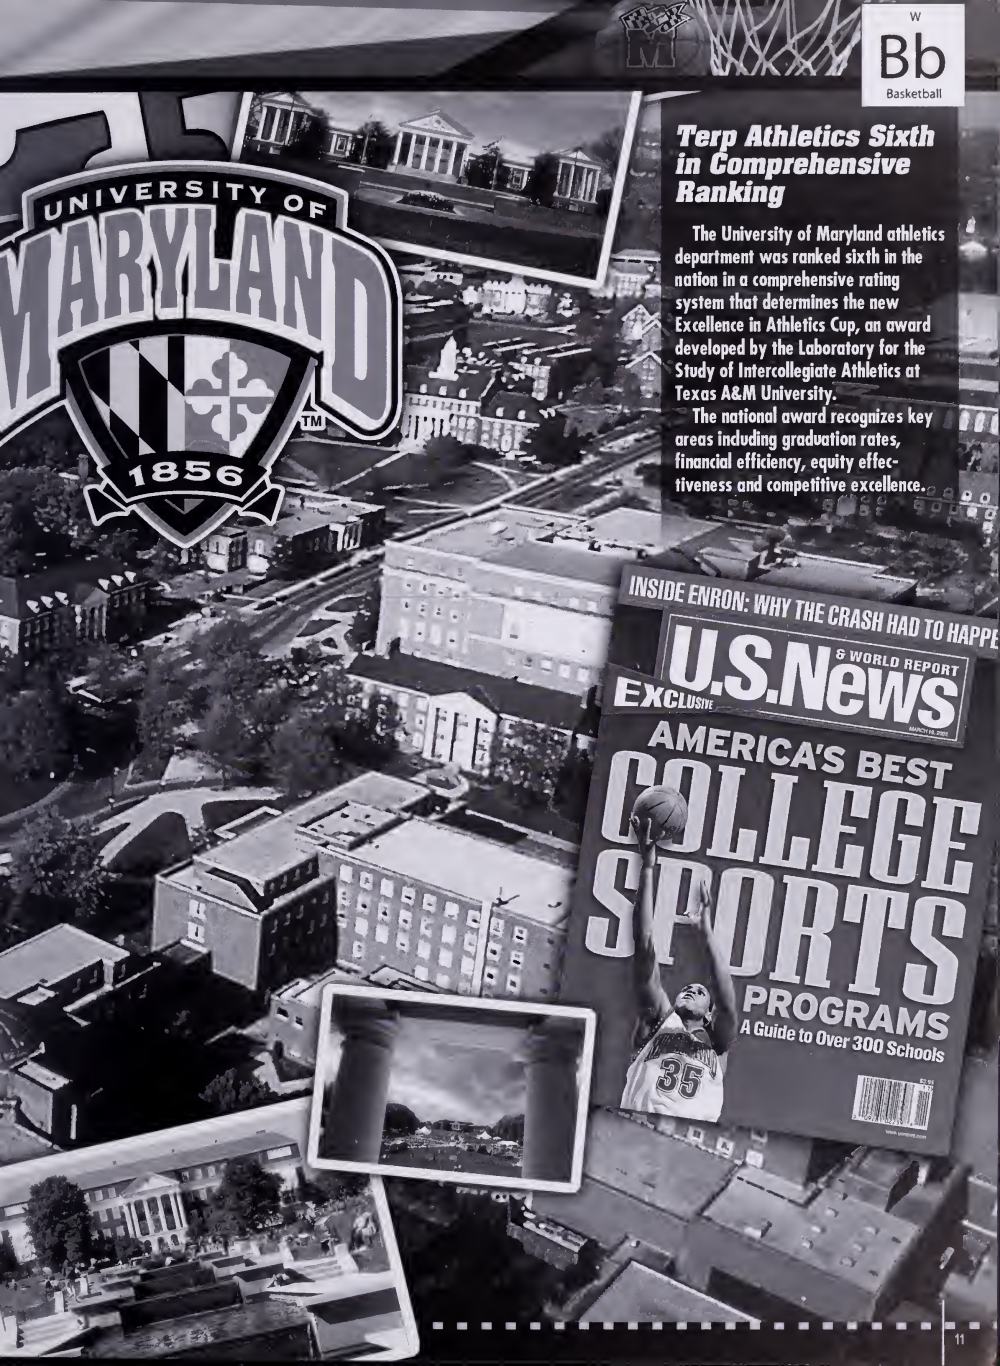
Whether your focus is the sciences or the humanities, a small-town atmosphere or a metropolitan feel, the University of Maryland offers a wide range of educational and cultural opportunities.

There truly is no better place to be than the University of Maryland, College Park.

Terp Athletics Sixth in Comprehensive Ranking

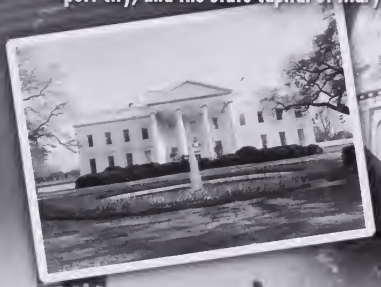
The University of Maryland athletics department was ranked sixth in the nation in a comprehensive rating system that determines the new Excellence in Athletics Cup, an award developed by the Laboratory for the Study of Intercollegiate Athletics at Texas A&M University.

The national award recognizes key areas including graduation rates, financial efficiency, equity effectiveness and competitive excellence.



SO MUCH SO CLOSE

City lights, history, sparkling waterfronts, monumental landscapes. Jazz, film festivals, marches and demonstrations. Shopping, professional sports, regattas on the Chesapeake Bay. Not just one city, but three. Not just any city, but the nation's capital, a major port city, and the state capital of Maryland.



WASHINGTON, D.C.

BALTIMORE

WASHINGTON, D.C.

The nation's capital and its major attractions are within 10 miles of Byrd Stadium. And the highly efficient Metro rail system, with a station at the campus doorstep, makes navigating the greater Washington, D.C., area easy. Campus shuttle buses serve the College Park Metro station, allowing easy access to one of the country's model transportation systems.

BALTIMORE

The 12th largest city in the United States is often referred to as the "Charm City." Located just 35 miles north of the University of Maryland, its rejuvenation as an urban center is unprecedented. The Inner Harbor, its National Aquarium and tall ships, and the nearby Oriole Park at Camden Yards create an exciting, vibrant holiday atmosphere in a city that boasts one of the world's great sea ports.

ANNAPOLIS

The state capital of Maryland lies just 30 miles east of the University of Maryland. Long called the "sailing capital of the United States," Annapolis is located at the mouth of the Severn River on the Chesapeake Bay. The historic downtown area is known for its wonderful eating and shopping opportunities. There are few places in the world that rival the Chesapeake Bay area for its appealing qualities.

SEASON OUTLOOK

In her first three seasons, head coach Brenda Frese has led Maryland from a lower-tier team in the ACC to one of the elite teams in the nation, earning a final top 25 ranking in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll last season for the first time in 12 years. She also guided the Terps to consecutive trips to the semifinals of the ACC Tournament, while also reaching the NCAA Tournament second round for the second-straight year, a feat which had not happened since the 1991-92 and 1992-93 seasons.

It is no surprise the Terps have received high praise during the preseason. A roster containing one ACC Rookie of the Year, one Honorable Mention All-American, three All-ACC performers, four gold medalists, two international Most Valuable Players, three-straight top 10 recruiting classes – including two consecutive top-five classes – and six high school All-Americans, Maryland is stacked with talent and ready to take the next step.

Earning as high as a No. 7 early preseason ranking, the Terps return nine letterwinners, including four starters. Among the returnees are Kodak/WBCA Honorable Mention All-American Shay Doron and last season's ACC's Rookie of the Year Crystal Langhorne. Both are preseason candidates for the John R. Wooden Award and the Wade Trophy, given to women's basketball's national player of the year. After Doron and Langhorne set numerous records during the 2004-05, they spent the summer playing internationally where both not only won a pair of gold medals, but were also named Most Valuable Players at international tournaments. Each has come back vastly improved and their experiences playing at an elite level has pushed their Terrapin teammates to raise their level of play to compete at a higher level.

"First and foremost, Crystal and Shay both had tremendous summers – the gold medals and being named MVP. They gained a wealth of experience which is going to help them in terms of their leadership of this team," said Frese. "Both are much more outspoken this year. When your hardest workers are also your vocal leaders, you've got tremendous captains. I think they're going to do an outstanding job, not only on the court but off the court, as well."

Also returning are junior Kalika France, an All-ACC honorable mention as a freshman and a two-year starter, and sophomore Jade Perry, who replaced classmate Laura Harper in the starting lineup when Harper went down with an Achilles injury in late December.

Last season, the injury bug struck the Terps in a big way, beginning with Harper, who started the first nine games of the season and was named ACC Rookie of the Week after a career performance against eventual Final Four-participant LSU. France battled with tendonitis for most of the season and junior Aurelie Noirez also missed some playing time due to various ailments.

The Terps welcome another highly-touted recruiting class who are coming in looking to make an immediate impact. Freshman Marissa Coleman, who won a gold medal this summer playing with the USA Under-19 World Championship Team, and Kristi Toliver have earned high praise in their high school careers and were ranked the fourth-best recruiting class in the nation.

"We have the best situation ahead of us this season if we can remain healthy. We have more depth than we've had since we've been here," said Frese. "But we have to be an unselfish team and play solid defense. We've obviously got a tremendous amount of scorers and talent with six high school All-Americans. We feel like if we can get our defensive game to the level of our offensive game, we're going to be a tremendous team."

The experiences of Coleman, Doron and Langhorne playing internationally this summer will also bring another new facet to the team.

"With Crystal, Shay and Marissa having played at the highest level of competition this summer, the level of this team has raised to new heights and it just makes us a better team," Frese commented.

With so much talent and depth at most positions, the burden of carrying the team will not fall to any one or two players. Faced with the most challenging schedule since Frese arrived at Maryland, the challenge will be for this young but experienced team to play as a cohesive unit on both sides of the ball and remain healthy.

GUARDS

Versatility and depth were two things Coach Frese did not have much of in the past at the guard positions. This season, however, the Terps not only have those two things, but also have a very experienced core.

"Between our returning players and the addition of our two incoming freshman, we have a lot of options and depth at the guard positions," Frese said. "Each of them can defend and score and we'll be able to put different combinations on the floor depending on the situation."

Junior Shay Doron had one of the best seasons in school history, averaging 17.6 points per game while breaking the school single-season free throw record for the second-straight year, earning Kodak/WBCA Honorable Mention All-American honors and first team All-ACC nods. The guard with dual citizenship in Israel and the United States followed up helping the Israeli National Team win the Division B European Championship trophy, the country's first-ever international title in a women's sport, and the USA capture gold at the Maccabi Games, en route to being named Most Valuable Player at both tournaments. Her experiences this summer have made her an even stronger candidate for the Wooden and Wade National Player of the Year awards.

"WE HAVE TO BE AN UNSELFISH TEAM AND PLAY SOLID DEFENSE. WE'VE OBVIOUSLY GOT A TREMENDOUS AMOUNT OF SCORERS AND TALENT WITH SIX HIGH SCHOOL ALL-AMERICANS. WE FEEL LIKE IF WE CAN GET OUR DEFENSIVE GAME TO THE LEVEL OF OUR OFFENSIVE GAME, WE'RE GOING TO BE A TREMENDOUS TEAM." - BRENDA FRESE

Shay Doron

Junior Kalika France, along with Doron, was also called upon to step in right away and help carry the load of the team when she was a freshman. She has started every game but one in her first two seasons as a Terrapin. And despite battling through severe tendonitis in both knees throughout most of last season, was the team's top defender and third-leading scorer.

Sophomore Ashleigh Newman saw extensive playing time last season and proved to be one of the league's top three-point threats. She had a career night knocking down seven treys in one half at Clemson and was ranked among the top 10 in the ACC in three-point shooting, while also handling the back-up point guard duties with Doron.

Senior Charmaine Carr made a position change last season, going from the post to the swing position giving the Terps added depth at the guard spots while also providing height and a tough matchup for opponents. She also gave Maryland a defensive spark off the bench, which saw her minutes increase over the course of the year.

Freshmen Marissa Coleman and Kristi Toliver are two of the nation's top newcomers, coming to College Park with high accolades. Both were named McDonald's and WBCA All-Americans, as well as, earning national honors from many other national publications. Toliver will have the bigger challenge on her hands taking over the team's point guard duties from departed senior Anesia Smith, but Frese is confident she'll be able to handle it.

"Kristi is going to be our point guard this season," said Frese. "She's going to direct this team and push tempo. Offensively, she can break people down off the dribble and shoot the three. The thing I love about Kristi, she's a competitor, she's a winner and she's extremely unselfish."

While there is an element of unknown because of her inexperience at the collegiate level, Frese has no doubt that Toliver will be up for the challenge. Toliver has grown up around the game of basketball. Her older sister was a four-year letterwinner at Lehigh and her father is an NBA official, so her knowledge of the game is vast. Toliver can not only distribute the ball, but has the leadership abilities to run the floor and is a scoring threat.

While only a freshman, Coleman has plenty of experience playing at a high level. She spent the last two summers playing with the country's top collegians as a member of the Under-19 USA Basketball team where she was a teammate of Laura Harper in 2004 and Crystal Langhorne this past summer. A guard/forward, the Washington Post's Metro Player of the Year presents matchup problems, as she can rebound and score and has the skills to challenge for a starting position.

Also joining the Terps is sophomore Christie Marrone, a transfer out of Virginia Tech. Though she will have to sit out the 2005-06 campaign due to NCAA transfer rules, her experience playing one season in the ACC will be an asset to the team in practice.

POSTS

Every post player returns this season, as the Terps boast plenty of talent, depth and an experience core.

"We are fortunate to have a talented group of post players returning this season," said Frese. "Crystal improves every time she's on the floor. Her experience with the USA team has been valuable not only to her development, but also to the rest of the team. Crystal, along with the other posts, are relentless workers and tough on offensive and on the glass."

Leading the way is ACC Rookie of the Year Crystal Langhorne, who had a remarkable freshman campaign breaking every freshman class school record while also posting one of the best seasons in school history. She continued to elevate her game over the summer, playing with the nation's elite Under-19 players, eventually being named Most Valuable Player at the U19 FIBA World Championship to go along with two gold medals. A tri-captain on the USA squad, she took on plenty of the load left behind by the sudden injury of teammate Laura Harper and went on to be the only player in the ACC to average a double-double, leading the conference in rebounding while also ranking among the top 10 in scoring.

With the return of Harper, who is scheduled to be at full strength once official practices begin, and the addition of sophomore Jade Perry into the mix, who stepped into a starting role after Harper ruptured her Achilles tendon and is playing with confidence, defenses will not be able to focus just on Langhorne.

Harper's much-anticipated return to the court is ahead of schedule and is expected to be ready come the season's opening tip-off on Nov. 18. One of the team's hardest workers, she put that work ethic into her rehabilitation and is eager to hit the ground running.

Perry was thrust into the starting lineup last season and has returned as the team's most improved player, according to Frese. A big presence in the post and a tough defender, winning numerous battles down low against some of the top post players in the nation, her confidence is at an all-time high.

Crystal Langhorne

Junior Aurelie Noirez has established herself as a reliable post player who can hit the mid-range jumper. She returns in better shape and continues to challenge her teammates and opponents with her hard work.

Senior Angel Ross is one of two seniors on the team and will be looked to to provide leadership. She suffered a knee injury during the offseason which required surgery and has spent most of the summer rehabilitating and trying to get back on the court.

Freshman Marissa Coleman and senior Charmaine Carr will also add depth and versatility to the post positions. The guard/forwards have the size, quickness and speed and are relentless on the boards.

"I can't say enough about how determined these players are," said Frese. "Crystal continues to build on an outstanding freshman campaign and the return of Laura gives us a tremendous boost. She has approached her rehab with the same hard work she gives us in practice. Jade has become a very confident player and is finally beginning to use the strength and skills we knew she had. Add Aurelie, Charmaine and Marissa and we have any number of players we can turn to."

Frese added, "This team has come back ready to work and determined to take this team to new heights. The addition of our newcomers makes us an even bigger threat to battle for an ACC title and make a run at a national championship. I'm excited for what this season is going to bring."

SCHEDULE

Head Coach Brenda Frese faces the toughest slate since she arrived four years ago. With the addition of Boston College to the ACC, completing the expansion of the league, Maryland's schedule features 14 games against 11 NCAA Tournament teams, and three more games versus teams that played in the WNIT.

Five-time defending Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference regular season champion Siena hosts the Terps for the season opener on Nov. 18. Maryland then comes home to tip-off the home slate with the Atlantic 10's Xavier Nov. 20. Last season, the Terps battled the Musketeers down to the wire with the Terrapins coming out on top.

Those two games will be all the preparation Maryland will have before heading to the U.S. Virgin Islands for the Paradise Jam over the Thanksgiving holiday. The Terps open the three-day event against WAC Champion Gonzaga, before taking on NCAA finalist Michigan State, followed by Final Four participant Tennessee.

"Our trip to the Virgin Islands will show us where we're at early in the season," said Frese. "We felt, with the goals we've set for ourselves, it was time to step up our schedule. Playing these high-caliber teams will better prepare us for the battles in the ACC and postseason play. There is no doubt that the Paradise Jam will certainly pair us against the nation's elite competition."

Maryland returns home to play seven of its nine games in the friendly confines of Comcast Center, including NCAA Tournament teams Arizona on Dec. 11 and Coppin State on Dec. 13, while also hosting the annual Terrapin Classic, Dec. 29 and 30. The Wildcats will be looking to avenge an overtime loss on their home court last season.

After opening the month of January hosting Manhattan, the Terps open the ACC schedule against five-straight teams that reached the NCAA Tournament. Maryland travels to face newcomers BC on Jan. 5. It will be the first-ever meeting between the teams.

Maryland then plays back-to-back home games against Duke and Florida State. The meeting with the Blue Devils will be the first game of the home-and-home series, while the Terps will be looking to take advantage of the home court vs. the Seminoles in the only meeting between the teams on Jan. 16.

Virginia and Virginia Tech will host the Terrapins on Jan. 20 and 23. The long-time rivalry between the Terps and the Cavaliers is sure to live up to expectations in the first of two regular season meetings, while Maryland is looking for its first win in Blacksburg, Va., since 2000.

The Terps play Georgia Tech (Jan. 26) and Miami (Feb. 1) in College Park, while traveling to WNIT participant Wake Forest on Jan. 29 for the only regular-season meeting with those teams. Maryland will be in the thick of the ACC schedule when it closes out the regular-season series with UVA on Feb. 5, followed by trips to ACC Champion North Carolina (Feb. 9) and Duke (Feb. 13) for the annual ESPN2 battle.

Boston College visits College Park for the first time on Feb. 16. Maryland makes its final regular season road trip when it goes to NC State (Feb. 19), then home games vs. Clemson and Northern Colorado cap the regular season.

The ACC Tournament will once again take place at the Greensboro Coliseum, March 2-5. The Terps will be looking to make their third-consecutive appearance in the NCAA Tournament when it kicks off March 18.

"It's going to be an exciting season. Our team and the coaching staff have done a lot of preparation in the offseason, and will continue to prepare as the preseason approaches, to take this team to the next level and make a strong threat for the ACC and NCAA titles."

PRESEASON NOTEBOOK

DORON, LANGHORNE PRESEASON PLAYER OF THE YEAR CANDIDATES

Junior Shay Doron and sophomore Crystal Langhorne were named preseason candidates for two major National Player of the Year awards. Both are among the nation's top preseason candidates for the prestigious Wooden Award, making Maryland one of just six schools with two candidates on the list.

Doron and Langhorne were also named to the Women's Basketball Coaches Association's State Farm Wade Trophy Watch List. The award is considered the Heisman Trophy of women's basketball. Only three schools, including Maryland, has two players named to the 20-player preseason list.

The ACC leads all conferences with the most candidates, with seven players named to each list.

GOLDEN GIRLS

Junior Shay Doron, sophomore Crystal Langhorne and freshman Marissa Coleman each won two gold medals this summer. Doron helped the Israeli National Team to the Division B European Championship in Brno, Czech Republic to the country's first-ever women's international title. She then helped the USA capture gold at the Maccabi games in Israel. She was also named Most Valuable Player of both tournaments.

Coleman and Langhorne were members of the U-19 USA Basketball World Championship team. The team won gold and Sports International Invitational in San Diego. They both then stood on the gold-medal stand at the FIBA U19 World Championship in Tunis, Tunisia.

Langhorne, who was also named a tri-captain, earned MVP nods at the World Championship. She led the team in scoring with 16.6 points per game, shooting .775 from the field, and was second in rebounding averaging 6.4 rebounds per game.

Coleman was in her second stint with the U19 squad.

MARRONE TRANSFERS TO MARYLAND

Sophomore Christie Marrone, who played for Virginia Tech last season, transferred to Maryland during the summer. A Brooklyn, N.Y., native, she averaged 4.3 points per game, 1.5 assists per game and shot .359 from three-point land. Marrone will have to sit out the 2005-06 campaign due to NCAA transfer rules, but will become eligible in 2006-07 and has three seasons of eligibility remaining.

BEST OF THE BEST

Head coach Brenda Frese and her coaching staff hit the recruiting trails the moment they arrived on campus four years ago and their hard work is evident from this season's roster. The 2005-06 Terrapin roster features six high school All-Americans. Shay Doron, a McDonald's and Parade All-American, and Kalika France, a Parade All-American, were the first class to sign on with Coach Frese. That class was ranked among the top 10 in the nation. Frese and her staff followed up by signing the No. 2 rated class in the nation, including McDonald's and Parade All-Americans Laura Harper and Crystal Langhorne. The incoming class of Marissa Coleman and Kristi Toliver, both McDonald's and Parade All-Americans, as well, was ranked No. 4 in the nation.

All six were also named Gatorade Players of the Year for their home state at least once. Doron (N.Y.), Langhorne (N.J.) and Coleman (Washington, D.C.) each earned the honor twice.

WHO'S BACK

The Terps welcome back nine letterwinners, including four starters, from last season's team which posted a 22-10 record and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The ACC's Rookie of the Year, Crystal Langhorne, had a summer to remember traveling to Hungary and Tunisia with the USA Under-19 Basketball Team. Kodak/WBCA All-American and first team All-ACC performer, Shay Doron also had an impressive summer, winning gold medals with the Israeli National team and the Maccabi Games USA squad.

Starting in all but one game last year, junior Kalika France spent the summer nursing her knees back to health and sophomore Jade Perry, who stepped into a starting role after the season-ending injury to Laura Harper, also returns.

A sophomore, Harper has also been rehabilitating after an Achilles tendon rupture in December of 2004 and is eager to return to the basketball court. Seniors Charmaine Carr and Angel Ross are the only two seniors on the squad. Carr saw increased playing time last year as a defensive replacement, while Ross also used her summer vacation to rehab an injured knee.

Sophomore Ashleigh Newman looks to become an even stronger perimeter threat, while junior Aurelie Noirez continues to flourish in her role as a back-up post player.

SECOND-STRAIGHT TOP-FIVE CLASS COMES TO COLLEGE PARK

For the third-consecutive year, head coach Brenda Frese has lured a top-10 ranked recruiting class and the second top-five ranked class in a row. This year's incoming class of guard/forward Marissa Coleman and guard Kristi Toliver was rated the fourth-best recruiting class in the nation according to the Blue Star Report.

Coleman and Toliver bring a number of high school accolades with them. They were both named McDonald's and WBCA All-Americans, earning a roster spot in both all-star games. Each was also named to the USA Today All-USA Basketball team, with Coleman being named to the first team and Toliver selected to the second team. Picked Gatorade Players of the Year for Washington, D.C., and Virginia, respectively, Coleman was the 2005 Washington Post Metro High School Player of the Year, while Toliver was the Daily News Record High School Player of the Year.

MARYLAND ON THE TUBE

The ACC announced the conference's television package this summer which included six TV appearances by the Terrapins. In January, the Terps play four-straight games on the conference's Regional Sports Network (Comcast SportsNet, Fox Sports Net South and Sun Sports) with two more games in February being televised. Both games against Duke will be on TV, including a nationally televised game on ESPN2.

The Terps also have three more television opportunities to play in front of the cameras at the ACC Tournament. Selected quarterfinal games will be televised on the regional sports network, while the semifinal and championship games are scheduled for a national telecast on Fox Sports Net.

Should Maryland earn its third-consecutive NCAA Tournament berth, the postseason event will once again be televised nationally on the ESPN family of networks.

HEAD COACH · ARIZONA '93
FOURTH YEAR AT MARYLAND
SEVENTH YEAR AS A HEAD COACH

Head coach Brenda Frese was exactly what the University of Maryland Athletics Director Deborah A. Yow was looking for to resurrect a struggling women's basketball program which was once one of the premier teams in the nation.

Described as dynamic, overachieving, determined and enthusiastic, the 35-year old coach captured her 100th-career win on Feb. 2 vs. Georgia Tech and has compiled a 107-71 (.601) career record in six seasons as a head coach and three stops along the way. Making amazing turnarounds her calling card, the 2002 Associated Press National Coach of the Year has guided Maryland to the most wins since 1992-93, back-to-back non-losing records in ACC play for the first time since 1992-93 and 1993-94, and consecutive NCAA Tournament berths for the first time in 12 years.

While piling up the victories in three seasons in College Park, mentoring the Terps to their first 20-win season since 1993, Frese continues to be a workhorse on the recruiting trails, signing three-straight top 10 classes, including back-to-back classes ranked in the top five. Regarded as one of the top recruiting coaches in the country, her recruiting classes have lived up to their billing. Junior Shay Doron was the first-ever Terrapin to be named to an All-ACC team as a freshman in 2004 and, in 2005, was selected Kodak/WBCA Region II All-American, the first Terp to earn the honor since 1993. 2005 also marked the first time in 14 years a Terrapin had been voted ACC Rookie of the Year when Crystal Langhorne earned the award last year. Langhorne also became the highest-honored freshman in school history when she was selected second team all-conference that same season. The Terps' backcourt of Doron and Kalika France, who was an honorable mention All-ACC selection as a freshman, is considered one of the best in the nation.

Despite a roster with eight freshmen and sophomores, Maryland was picked to finish third in a 2004 preseason ACC media poll, with two Terrapins earning preseason honors, including Langhorne, who was picked Preseason Rookie of the Year, the first time a Terp had received the recognition since the polling began in 1991. Frese's young Terps garnered a top 25 preseason rating in both the Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today Coaches poll, rising to as high as No. 15 in the AP ranking, the highest since 1992-93. On Jan. 9, 2005, Maryland went on to record one of its biggest victories in school history in over a decade, upsetting No. 5/4 North Carolina at Comcast Center. Reaching the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the second-straight year, Maryland was No. 24 in the season's final Coaches Poll, the first time the Terps have appeared in the final ranking since 1992-93.

With the excitement in College Park running high, a record number of fans came to Comcast Center to watch the Terrapins in 2004-05. Over 71,000 fans were in the stands for 17 home games, 32,000 more than the previous season. An ACC-record 17,243 fans witnessed the Terps take on Duke on Feb. 13, 2005, topping the previous record of 14,500 which was held by the Maryland, as well. The 17,000-plus fans was also the fourth-largest, regular-season crowd in the nation last season.

The proof of the Terrapins' improvement can be found in the numbers. Maryland's 72.8 scoring average ranked in the top 20 in the nation and was also the highest scoring average in team history since 1992-93. The Terps outrebounded its opponents by a margin of 6.8 rebounds per game, 18th-best in the nation and the largest margin in the program's history since 1979-80. The team's 42.4 rpg were also the most in 12 years. The team's No. 7 seed in the 2005 NCAA Tournament was five spots higher than the previous season's No. 12 seeding.

In 2003-04, just her second season at the Terrapin helm, she took Maryland to an unexpected run to the second round of the 2004 NCAA Tournament and their first tournament win in 12 years.

In what was supposed to be the second year of the rebuilding process in 2003-04, Frese instilled confidence into a Maryland squad that went 4-12 in ACC play the season before and was depending on players with limited experience, including two highly touted high school All-Americans in Doron and France. Despite a preseason eighth-place pick, the Terps ran out to a third-place tie in the ACC with an 8-8 mark, doubling their conference win total from each of the last two seasons and their best showing in the conference standings since the 1996-97 campaign. Collecting 18 wins overall, the most since 1996-97, Maryland was rewarded with an NCAA Tournament bid, its first since 2000-01, and was the only 12th seed to advance when it upset fifth-seeded and future ACC-opponent Miami, 86-85. At season's end, the Terps received votes in the final Coaches Top 25 poll of the season.

There was a long list of accomplishments for Maryland following the 2003-04 campaign. The Terps reached the ACC Tournament semifinals for the first time since 1998 and nearly defeated top-seeded and five-time conference champion Duke. Maryland averaged a 12.3-point margin of victory in its conference wins, sweeping Wake Forest and Clemson, its first sweep of any ACC team in three years. Statistically, the team improved its scoring, three-point shooting, ending the year ranked 18th in the nation in that category, and free throw percentage. Making nine television appearances on the season, including four national broadcasts, the Terps drew over 13,000 fans to the final home game of the season versus the Blue Devils, then the second-largest crowd in ACC women's basketball history and a Comcast Center record.

Her first season at the Terps' helm was the rebuilding year it was predicted to be. With a roster short on depth but high on effort, Frese led Maryland to a 10-18 record, narrowly missing wins at several junctures. Frese's Terps also notched several positive steps in her first year including: breaking 100 points in a game for the first time since Dec. 28, 1993, winning their first ACC road game since Feb. 19, 2001, drawing a crowd of 5,078 -- the largest at a Maryland women's basketball game to date since Feb. 24, 1996, and bringing home their first win from Florida State since the 1995-96 campaign.

Brenda Frese and husband Mark Thomas

One of college basketball's rising stars, Frese fits with Maryland's legacy of success. At Minnesota, she earned AP National Coach of the Year honors as well as Big Ten Coach of the Year recognition for turning the Gophers' 8-20 program into a 22-8 team and a top 25 contender in 2001-02. One of the biggest one-season turnarounds in NCAA history, Minnesota set a then-school record with 22 wins and tied for second in the Big Ten with an 11-5 conference mark. Frese also took the Gophers to what was only the school's second NCAA Tournament appearance. The Golden Gophers earned a fifth-seed in the NCAA Tournament and defeated UNLV in the first round before being eliminated by three points in the second round by North Carolina.

Frese's revitalization of the Minnesota program rocked the Big Ten establishment, with her team's 10-win improvement in conference play marking the biggest one-year improvement in Big Ten history. Moreover, the 11 Big Ten wins were three more than Minnesota totaled in the previous six seasons combined. The Golden Gophers had also achieved their highest ranking in school history to that point when Minnesota was listed 14th in the Associated Press Top 25 in mid-February and garnered a No. 18 national ranking in the final regular season AP poll. Undoubtedly, Frese had arrived.

Frese started her head coaching career during the 1999-2000 season at Ball State, a program that had gone 66-169 in the nine seasons prior to her arrival. She guided the Cardinals to a 16-13 showing in 2000 and garnered Coach of the Year honors in the Mid-American Conference. Frese led Ball State to a then-school best 19-9 mark in 2000-01, capturing the school's second back-to-back winning seasons in Ball State history. Her final year at Ball State, the 2000-01 team received votes in the AP poll, climbing as high as No. 28 in the country.

Frese's enthusiam has been contagious for the fans of her teams as well, as support increased significantly at both Minnesota and Ball State under her leadership. Buoyed by the best start (9-1) in school history, the Golden Gophers finished the season ranked 19th nationally in home attendance average (4,360), including an average of 8,828 fans during the second half of the campaign when the team moved to Williams Arena from the Sports Pavilion. The Gophers attracted the top four crowds in school history, including a record attendance of 12,142 vs. Michigan State and a crowd of 11,389 vs. Indiana. Frese's 2000-01 Ball State team posted a 10-2 home record and set a single-season home attendance record.

She launched her Division I coaching career in 1994 as an assistant coach at Kent State University, helping the Golden Flashes to records of 20-8 (1994) and 17-10 (1995) during her two years there. The Cedar Rapids, Iowa, native then joined Bill Fennelly's staff at Iowa State as the Cyclones' recruiting coordinator, where she assisted in another impressive turnaround, helping ISU to three NCAA Tournament appearances in four years. All told, the Cyclones posted a composite record of 84-38 with Frese as an assistant, including a 17-10 record in 1995-96 when Iowa State recorded the biggest one-season turnaround in school history. In 1997, the Cyclones made their first-ever appearance in the NCAA Tournament, a feat they duplicated in 1998 and 1999 with identical 25-8 records. In 1999, Iowa State was ranked among the nation's Top 25 for the entire season and came within one victory of reaching the Final Four.

During her stay at Iowa State, her 1998-99 recruiting class was ranked among the nation's top 10, and the Cyclones enjoyed tremendous success at the gate, drawing a record crowd of 12,337 vs. Santa Clara in the first round of an NCAA Tournament game played in Ames, Iowa, and rewriting Iowa State's single-season attendance mark multiple times.

Frese is a 1993 graduate of the University of Arizona, where she was a three-year letterwinner for the Wildcats as a guard. When injuries sidelined her during her senior season, she joined the Pima Community College coaching staff in Tucson, Ariz., as an assistant coach in charge of recruiting and scouting. Aside from her bachelor's degree in communications from Arizona in 1993, she also earned a master's degree in athletic administration from Kent State in 1995.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT COACH BRENDA FRESE...

"Under the leadership of Coach Frese, we have made extraordinary progress in the last three years. Her passion for the well being of her student athletes, her determination to win and her faith in the Terps program is a powerful combination. There is no program in the nation better positioned to succeed in the next decade. Over time, she will put Maryland in a position to regularly compete for the national championship."

— Maryland Athletics Director Deborah A. Yow

"Brenda is one of the bright young coaches in the game today. Maryland is very fortunate. She'll do an unbelievable job of adding to the great tradition that Chris Weller had started there."

— National Champion Connecticut Head Coach Geno Auriemma

"Brenda is one of the young dynamic coaches in the game. Obviously, with my being an Old Dominion player, I have known of the Maryland program for years and where it has been and what it has achieved. If you give Brenda time, she will make Maryland one of the top teams not only in the ACC, but I think Maryland has the potential to be a Top-10 team for a long time to come."

— Basketball Hall of Famer and ESPN Basketball Analyst Nancy Lieberman

"I knew she would do a good job [at Maryland] but to do it this fast, it's really unbelievable. It's like, "Where the did Maryland come from?" Now, they're a force to be reckoned with. It's amazing what's she's done in a short time. She's a great motivator, she gets her players to run up and down the court, and, in talking to some of them, it's just a positive feeling and that's why she's getting some of the [top] kids."

- ESPN Basketball Analyst Pam Ward

"Brenda is definitely one of the brightest young coaches in America. She's a great student of the game. She will be very successful at Maryland."

— Arizona Head Coach Joan Bonvicini

"I think this is a great hire for the University of Maryland. Brenda will do a great job of continuing the great tradition of Maryland basketball. She is outstanding in all areas needed to lead a program to national prominence. She is hard working and extremely organized. She knows what it takes to find players who can succeed at this level."

— Iowa State Head Coach Bill Fennelly

"I think the University of Maryland made a good choice in hiring Brenda. She is obviously an up-and-coming coach and she did a great job at the University of Minnesota while she was there. She worked for me so I feel I know her a little better than some other people. I think she will do a great job there, I think it was a good hire and I think that five years down the road, the University of Maryland will have a very good team on their hands."

— Kent State Head Coach Bob Lindsay

"Brenda is where we all expected her to be. It seems like every where she touches turns to gold. The scary part is, it's only going to get better. From the conference, to the recruits, to the exposure - it's only going to get better. That's a scary thought."

— 2005 National Coach of the Year LSU Head Coach Pokey Chapman

JEFF WALZ

ASSISTANT COACH · NORTHERN KENTUCKY '95
FOURTH YEAR AT MARYLAND
11TH YEAR OVERALL

With over 10 years of collegiate experience, assistant coach Jeff Walz begins his fourth season with the Maryland Terrapins. After stints at Minnesota, Nebraska and Western Kentucky, Walz's career highlights include helping guide his teams to seven NCAA Tournaments, including back-to-back appearances by the Terps, and one WNIT appearance.

"Jeff is extremely talented in many areas. He does a tremendous job on the floor in practices, games and with player development," said head coach Brenda Frese. "He is extremely organized and efficient, and it shows in everything he does for our program."

In three seasons in College Park, the Terps have made marked improvements while Walz has been on the sidelines. Each year, Maryland has seen its scoring average improve while posting the most victories since 1992-93, winning 22 games in 2004-05. The Terps also reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament in 2004 and 2005. During his time, four Terrapins have garnered All-ACC accolades and Crystal Langhorne was tabbed the 2005 ACC Rookie of the Year. He also assisted in the Terrapin coaching staff's recruiting efforts to sign back-to-back top-five ranked recruiting classes in 2004 and 2005.

A scholarship player for Northern Kentucky from 1990-93, Walz was with Frese at Minnesota for one year after coaching for four seasons at Nebraska. At Minnesota, he worked with the posts and centers, including 2002 Big Ten Freshman of the Year Janel McCarville, while also taking on scouting and recruiting efforts for the Gophers during the staff's 22-8 season.

While with the Cornhuskers from 1997-2001, Walz was involved with all aspects of the program, from coordinating the Huskers' recruiting efforts to tracking student-athletes' academics, to scheduling and camps. He helped Nebraska to a school-record, three-straight NCAA Tournament appearances (1998, 1999, 2000) and also coached the L.A. Sparks' No. 1 draft pick in the 2000 WNBA Draft, Nicole Kubik. By his final year at Nebraska, Walz was in charge of conducting individual development workouts, as well as, opponent scouting.

Walz began his collegiate career at Western Kentucky in 1996 after serving as the team's administrative assistant the previous season. He started coaching at the middle and high school levels in 1992 and was an AAU coach from 1995-96. During his career, he has guided such players as 1999 NCAA champion and WNBA standout Ukari Figgs, the University of Tennessee's Kyra Elzy, Ohio State standout Marita Porter and 1996 National High School Player of the Year Jamie Walz, his sister, who now coaches the girls' high school team at their alma mater, Highlands High School.

He attended Northern Kentucky University on a basketball scholarship, graduating with a bachelor of science in secondary education in May 1995. Walz earned his master's in education in August 2000 from Western Kentucky.

Walz exchanged vows with Kim Kumfer on May 17, 2003. The couple had their first baby, Kaeley Thöney, on August 3, 2005. They reside in Crofton, Md.

ERICA FLOYD

ASSISTANT COACH · OHIO STATE '93
FOURTH YEAR AT MARYLAND
12TH YEAR OVERALL

Ohio State standout and 11-year assistant coaching veteran Erica Floyd completed Brenda Frese's sideline staff when she, too, made the move from Minnesota to Maryland before the 2002-03 season. Floyd coached with Frese during coaching stints at Minnesota and Ken State and has helped to rebuild the Terrapin program which reach the 2004 NCAA Tournament.

"Erica does a tremendous job with our players and with establishing relationships in the community," said Frese of Floyd. "She is also a big asset in recruiting and is committed to making our program the best it can be."

Floyd's contributions in three years at Maryland have seen the Terps win more games since 1992-93 in 2005 (22), advance to the second round of the NCAA Tournament twice, achieve a No. 15 national ranking, the highest in 12 years, while also mentoring the 2005 ACC Rookie of the Year and four All-ACC performers. Her recruiting efforts have also helped to land the No. 2 recruiting class in the nation in 2004 and the No. 4 class in 2005.

At Minnesota, Floyd assisted not only in on- and off-campus recruiting, but also with scouting and film breakdown. The position coach for the forwards and centers, she helped guide 2002 Big Ten Freshman of the Year Janel McCarville, and also led the Gophers' community service efforts. Minnesota experienced the biggest one-year turnaround in Big Ten history in Floyd's year there, going 22-8 after inheriting a program that had been 8-20 the previous season.

She called Cleveland State home from 1998-2001 and served the Viking program in all capacities. She coached Audra Cook, 2000 Midwestern Collegiate Conference Player of the Year while at Cleveland State and was in charge of coordinating team travel and assisting in recruiting efforts both on- and off-campus. She continued to lend her experience to the forwards and centers and also aided in monitoring academics, scouting and coordinating summer camps.

Floyd joined the coaching ranks at Kent State from 1994-98 where she coaches alongside Frese, who was an assistant at the time. A position coach for the forwards and centers, she assisted with various aspects of the program including coordinating team travel, scouting and summer camps. A Kent, Ohio, native, she also served as the school's assistant marketing director from 1995-98.

Floyd played at Ohio State from 1989-1992, graduating with a bachelor of science degree in education in 1993. She was on the Buckeye team that shared the 1989 Big Ten title, and as a captain her senior year, was voted Most Improved Player. Following her senior year of high school, Floyd was named the 1988 Gatorade Ohio High School Player of the Year.

JOANNA BERNABEI

ASSISTANT COACH · WEST LIBERTY '97
THIRD YEAR AT MARYLAND
EIGHTH YEAR OVERALL

Joanna Bernabei enters her third year as an assistant coach at Maryland, after being hired in June 2003. Bernabei came to College Park from West Virginia, and has helped Maryland reach the second round of the NCAA Tournament in each of her two seasons, while assisting in the recruiting of back-to-back top-five ranked recruiting classes.

"Joanna is very passionate and her knowledge on the floor has been a big asset to our team," said head coach Brenda Frese. "She works extremely hard in our recruiting efforts and has developed tremendous contacts all over the country."

Since Bernabei's arrival at Maryland, the Terps have won the most games in 12 years (22 in 2005), four Terrapins have received All-ACC nods and Crystal Langhorne was tabbed the 2005 ACC Rookie of the Year.

Bernabei served two years at West Virginia as an assistant coach for the Mountaineer women's basketball team where she was a scout, position coach and recruiting coordinator. Before her time as a Mountaineer, Bernabei had a two-year stint at Eastern Kentucky where she was responsible for scouting, individual player development as well as serving as the recruiting coordinator. She gained head-coaching experience in 1998 at West Virginia Wesleyan where she compiled an 18-9 record and a third-place finish in the West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WVIAC), while also acting as the school's senior women's administrator.

Bernabei attended West Liberty State where she was a Division II All-American and a four-time first team All-WVIAC selection as a point guard. Named 1997 WVIAC Player of the Year, she currently holds the NCAA Division II career assist record of 1,107 and the single-game record for most assists at 24 which she set against West Virginia State (Feb. 8, 1997). She is one of a handful of players, men or women, to record more than 1,000 points and 1,000 assists in a career, finishing her stellar career with 1,317 total points.

Bernabei also holds NCAA records for assists average per game (9.5) and the school and conference marks for assists in a game, season (294) and career. She led her team to an 80-36 record over four years and is listed on West Liberty's Top 20 All-Time Best Athlete list. She is the first woman to be named first team All-West Virginia Athletic Conference for four years and was West Virginia's 1993 High School Player of the Year.

Bernabei earned her bachelor's degree in exercise physiology in 1997 from West Liberty and a master's degree from Eastern Kentucky in physical education in 1999.

Bernabei married Joe McNamee in her hometown of Weirton, W. Va., on May 22, 2004. The couple now lives in Columbia, Md.

MARK PEARSON

DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS
IOWA STATE '96
FOURTH YEAR AT MARYLAND
NINTH YEAR OVERALL

Head coach Brenda Frese took care of all the details when she built her staff at Minnesota and brought that winning formula, intact, to Maryland, including Director of Basketball Operations Mark Pearson. In his fourth year, Pearson oversees the general operations of the basketball program, especially the planning of team travel.

"Mark does a tremendous job of overseeing all of our team travel and coordinating our office from top to bottom," said Frese. "Mark does a great job organizing and makes sure everything runs smoothly while also serving as our director of summer camps."

While Pearson was with Frese in Minnesota, he handled team travel, scheduled practices, coordinated camps and assisted with community service. His experience before Minnesota was vast and varied, including knowledge of both the business and the coaching worlds.

Prior to joining the Gophers' athletic department, Pearson spent two years in the sales department of Reuters, Inc., in Ankeny, Iowa. From 1997-99, he was an assistant basketball coach at Iowa Central Community College and was involved in everything from recruiting and scouting, to summer camps, to overseeing student-athletes' academic performances.

He spent two years as an Iowa Central Junior College player before continuing his education at Iowa State. He served as a graduate assistant and manager of the Cyclone men's basketball team from 1993-97. During that time, Iowa State made three trips to the NCAA Tournament, including a Sweet 16 appearance in 1997.

Pearson earned his bachelor's degree in finance from Iowa State in 1996 and a master's of education in sports management from Iowa State in 2003.

Pearson and his wife, Jennifer, reside in Laurel, Md. Their son, B.J., celebrated his fourth birthday on March 1, 2005. The couple's youngest child, Natalie, celebrates her second birthday on July 27, 2005.

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS
BALL STATE '03
THIRD YEAR AT MARYLAND

The newest member of the Maryland women's basketball staff, Tamara Bowie is entering her third season with the Terrapins as Assistant Director of Basketball Operations. Joining the squad in January 2004, her responsibilities include some recruiting, assistance with marketing and promotions, and facilitating with the day-to-day operations of the team.

A 2003 graduate, Bowie was one of the most decorated players in Ball State University history. She was a three-time Kodak All-American Honorable Mention and a two-time Mid-American Conference Player of the Year, while earning first team all-conference honors three times.

Bowie's legacy can be found in the BSU record books. Her name appears in the annals 45 times, owning several career, season and single-game standards. She is the school's career scoring leader with 2,091 points, ranking third overall among men or women at BSU. Her name also appears atop the school's blocks record with 152 and is second with 933 rebounds.

Bowie became the first-ever MAC basketball player to be drafted by the WNBA when she was selected with the 36th pick overall by the Washington Mystics in the summer of 2003. She also played professionally with the Perikos FIBE Team in Athens, Greece, in 2003-04.

Hailing from Lansing, Mich., Bowie was recruited by head coach Brenda Frese while Frese was at Ball State, playing for her for two seasons. Bowie earned a bachelor of science in sports administration in 2003.

55 JADE PERRY

SO. • 6-1 • FORWARD
CENTRAL CITY, KY.
MUHLENBERG NORTH H.S.

FRESE ON PERRY

"Jade earned a tremendous opportunity last season when Laura went down with her injury. She gained valuable experience in the ACC Conference race. I look for Jade to use that experience and build on it. Jade is a legitimate low-post player who is extremely strong and can defend."

2004-05

Stepped into the starting lineup at the Terrapin Classic after teammate Laura Harper was sidelined with an injury for the duration of the season ... posted career-highs of 10 rebounds and three blocks in the win over Pennsylvania at the Coors Classic ... recorded eight points and eight rebounds in first-career start vs. Marshall ... scored three points and grabbed seven rebounds with two blocks, limiting second team All-ACC performer and the ACC's field goal percentage leader, Erlana Larkins, to below her scoring average and just 3-for-10 shooting in the upset-win over No. 5/4 North Carolina ... responded with one of her best efforts of the season, scoring 10 points and grabbing six rebounds in a career high 35 minutes at No. 1/4 Duke ... knocked down the game-tying bucket with 0.8 seconds remaining in regulation in the nationally televised, overtime win at Arizona ... the buzzer beater was No. 2 on that evening's ESPN Sportcenter's Top 10 Plays of the Day ... set a new career high with 12 points on 6-for-11 shooting against Wake Forest, also grabbing seven rebounds ... six points and five rebounds against then-No. 3/4 Duke in front of a record crowd at Comcast Center ... knocked down 5-of-9 shots for 10 points in the home contest vs. Virginia Tech ... 11 points and six rebounds in the upset-win over No. 19/21 NC State in the second round of the ACC Tournament ... 4-for-8 from the field in the NCAA Tournament first round game vs. No. 24/21 UW-Green Bay ... averaged 5.1 ppg and 3.4 rpg in ACC-only games.

BEFORE MARYLAND

A three-time Street & Smith's Honorable Mention All-American ... three-time Third Region Player of the Year, leading Muhlenburg North H.S. to its fifth-straight region title in 2004 ... Louisville Courier-Journal first team all-state honoree four times and tabbed the publication's No. 1 player in the state in a 2003 preseason poll ... 2004 Miss Basketball state finalist and a member of the state all-star team ... also led team to three-consecutive 10th District titles ... Lady Stars posted a 53-13 record over her final two seasons ... finished prep career with 2,792 points, 1,647 rebounds and 512 blocks, all school records ... carried a career .624 shooting percentage, going 1,150-for-1,834 from the floor ... also fifth all-time in state tournament games with 183 points and 10th with 90 career blocks ... lists winning the 2003 state champions in the shot put as biggest thrill.

PERSONAL

Lists early childhood education as her major ... youngest daughter of Gwendolyn Perry ... has an older sister, Jasmine (21) ... Jade's mother, Gwendolyn, was a four-year letterwinner in basketball at Kentucky State ... Jade Alicia Perry was born in Madisonville, Ky., Dec. 18, 1985.

2005-06 OPPONENTS & THE ACC

ABOUT THE ACC

THE TRADITION

John Swofford, ACC Commissioner

Consistency. It is the mark of true excellence in any endeavor.

However, in today's intercollegiate athletics, competition has become so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency.

Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds. Now in its 53rd year of competition, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 94 national champion-ships, including 49 in women's competition and 45 in men's. In addition, NCAA individual titles have gone to ACC student-athletes 119 times in men's competition and 61 times in women's action.

Since the inception of women's basketball in the ACC in 1977, a tradition of excellence has been established.

Over the years, ACC women's basketball teams have gained global recognition through their television exposure. The 2005-06 schedule features 40 televised games, including 11 national telecasts (six games on Fox Sports Net and affiliates and five on espn2). In addition, 29 match-ups will be featured on the league's regional sports network which includes Comcast SportsNet, Fox Sports Net South and Sun Sports. In all, the ACC will make 75 television appearances this season.

The league's women's basketball programs rank among the best in the country in terms of the NCAA Tournament, having made 103 appearances and won 137 games in the last 28 years, 11 of them as a number one seed. The league boasts such national accomplishments as sending at least one team to the "Sweet 16" for 17 consecutive years. The conference has also made ten trips to the Final Four in the last 24 years with two teams finishing second and North Carolina capturing the National Championship in 1994.

Since 1989, the ACC has placed nine players on the All-Final Four team, including Staley and Smith, who were dubbed Most Outstanding Players. In all, 50 ACC players have been named to NCAA Tournament All-Region teams, with eight Most Outstanding Player recognitions.

Three players have garnered national player of the year accolades while competing under the ACC banner. Virginia's Dawn Staley was a back-to-back selection in 1991 and 1992, while North Carolina's Charlotte Smith received the ESPY award in 1995. Duke's Alana Beard was recognized with national player of the year honors in both 2003 and 2004.

Five league coaches have combined to earn 11 national coach of the year awards. Duke's Gail Goestenkors, North Carolina's Sylvia Hatchell, Virginia's Debbie Ryan, Maryland's Chris Weller and NC State's Kay Yow have all garnered national recognition.

Seven ACC representatives, including coaches and student-athletes, have participated in the Olympics. NC State's Kay Yow, assisted by Sylvia Hatchell of North Carolina, headed up the 1988 gold medal-winning Olympic team. Maryland's Vicky Bullett was a member of both the 1988 and 1992 Olympic teams. Three-time Olympian and Virginia graduate, Dawn Staley struck gold in Athens as a member of the 2004 Olympic squad. Duke's Gail Goestenkors served as an assistant coach on the gold-medal winning team in Athens.

Since the inaugural season of the Women's National Basketball Association in 1997, the ACC has been a recognizable presence in the league. Forty-three former ACC stars have played on the hardwood in the WNBA, while five former players have worked the sidelines as coaches.

The ACC also stands at the forefront of intercollegiate athletics in terms of the academic accomplishments of its student-athletes. Since 1983, 381 women's basketball players have received ACC Academic Honor Roll recognition. The 2003-04 academic year included 39 selections. In addition, ACC women's basketball players have earned first-team Academic All-America honors six times, including Virginia's Val Ackerman in 1981, the former President of the WNBA. In 1997, NC State's Jennifer Howard was tabbed GTE CoSIDA Academic Player of the Year after posting a 4.0 grade point average throughout her career. Thirteen players have earned ACC postgraduate scholarships, while three others were named NCAA Postgraduate Scholars.

2004-05 IN REVIEW

The 2004-05 academic year concluded with the league pocketing three more national team titles and seven individual NCAA crowns. In all, the ACC has won 51 national team titles over the last 15 years.

The ACC's 2004-05 national champions were Wake Forest in field hockey, North Carolina in men's basketball and Duke in women's golf. In addition, a total of 181 student-athletes from the ACC earned first, second or third-team All-America honors this past year.

THE CHAMPIONSHIPS

The conference will conduct championship competition in 25 sports during the 2005-06 academic year - 12 for men and 13 for women.

The first ACC championship was held in swimming on February 25, 1954. The conference did not conduct championships in cross country, wrestling or tennis during the first year.

The 12 sports for men include football, cross country, soccer, basketball, swimming, indoor and outdoor track, wrestling, baseball, tennis, golf and lacrosse. Fencing, which was started in 1971, was discontinued in 1981.

Women's sports were initiated in 1977 with the first championship meet being held in tennis at Wake Forest University.

A HISTORY

The Atlantic Coast Conference was founded on May 8, 1953, at the Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, N.C., with seven charter members - Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wake Forest - drawing up the conference by-laws.

The withdrawal of seven schools from the Southern Conference came early on the morning of May 8, 1953, during the Southern Conference's annual spring meeting. On June 14, 1953, the seven members met in Raleigh, N.C., where a set of bylaws was adopted and the name became officially the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Suggestions from fans for the name of the new conference appeared in the region's newspapers prior to the meeting in Raleigh. Some of the names suggested were: Dixie, Mid South, Mid Atlantic, East Coast, Seaboard, Colonial, Tobacco, Blue-Gray, Piedmont, Southern Seven and the Shoreline.

Duke's Eddie Cameron recommended that the name of the conference be the Atlantic Coast Conference, and the motion was passed unanimously. The meeting concluded with each member institution assessed $200.00 to pay for conference expenses.

On December 4, 1953, conference officials met again at Sedgefield and officially admitted the University of Virginia as the league's eighth member. The first, and only, withdrawal of a school from the ACC came on June 30, 1971, when the University of South Carolina tendered its resignation.

The ACC operated with seven members until April 3, 1978, when the Georgia Institute of Technology was admitted. The Atlanta school had withdrawn from the Southeastern Conference in January of 1964.

The ACC expanded to nine members on July 1, 1991, with the addition of Florida State University.

The conference expanded to 11 members on July 1, 2004, with the addition of the University of Miami and Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University. On October 17, 2003, Boston College accepted an invitation to become the league's 12th member starting July 1, 2005.

2004-05 REVIEW

REVIEW NOTEBOOK

TERPS REACH NCAA SECOND ROUND FOR THE SECOND-STRAIGHT YEAR

For the first time since 1989 and 1990, Maryland advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament in back-to-back years. The seventh-seeded Terps defeated 10th-seeded and 24th-ranked UW-Green Bay, 65-55, in the first round to advance.

Maryland's berth into the 2005 NCAA Tournament marked the first time since 1992 and 1993 the Terps have played in the postseason event in consecutive years.

TERPS HOST NCAA TOURNAMENT

In July 2004, Comcast Center was selected as one of eight predetermined sites for the first and second rounds of the NCAA Tournament. College Park has been host to the tournament eight times and is the only school in the state to ever host an NCAA Women's Basketball Division I Tournament game. However, it was the first time the Comcast Center has hosted an NCAA Tournament game.

Prior to the 2005 tournament, it had been 12 years since a NCAA Tournament game had been played in College Park. In 2005, second-seeded Ohio State, 10th-seeded UW-Green Bay and 15th-seeded Holy Cross were sent to Comcast Center to play their first and second-round contests, with each team looking to move on to the Philadelphia Regional. With the tournament format having changed to eight sites and 16 teams at each venue, No. 4 Penn State, No. 5 DePaul, No. 12 Virginia Tech and No. 13 Liberty from the Chattanooga Regional also played at Comcast Center to open their tournament action.

TERPS WIN 20 GAMES

With its 66-55 win over Clemson in the first round of the ACC Tournament, the Terps captured its 20th-win of the season, the first time since 1992-93 Maryland had reached the 20-win plateau. The Terrapins went on to upset No. 19/21 NC State in the semifinals (63-56), then topped No. 24/21 UW-Green Bay (65-55) in the first round of the NCAA Tournament for 22 victories, the most in 12 years.

TERPS 24TH IN FINAL COACHES POLL

For the first time in 12 years, Maryland was ranked in the final ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll, earning a No. 24 rating. The Terps ended the season with a No. 7 seeding in the NCAA Tournament, reaching the second round for the second-straight year, while also posting wins over No. 19/21 NC State in the ACC Tournament and No. 24/21 UW-Green Bay.

Maryland had been ranked in the Coaches Poll for 16-consecutive weeks, earning a No. 16 ranking on January 16, its highest of the season and the highest since 1992-93.

TERPS ACHIEVE HIGHEST RANKING IN 12 YEARS

After upsetting its first top-five opponent since 1992-93 when it defeated North Carolina, Maryland made the second-largest leap in the Associated Press poll the week of Jan. 10, jumping six spots from No. 21 to No. 15, the team's highest rating since earning a No. 11 final ranking in 1993.

LANGHORNE ACC ROOKIE OF THE YEAR; TWO EARN ALL-ACC NODS

Earning 64 of 74 votes, Maryland's Crystal Langhorne was named the 2005 ACC Rookie of the Year, the fourth Terrapin in school history to win the award and the first since 1991. Langhorne, who was the only player in the ACC to average a double-double, led the ACC in rebounding with 10.6 boards a game, also the third-highest season average in school history. She also finished the season sixth in the ACC in scoring with just over 17 points per game. Tabbed the ACC's Preseason Rookie of the Year, she also led the conference and was sixth in the nation with 18 double-doubles.

Langhorne was also voted second team All-ACC, becoming the highest honored rookie Terrapin in school history. Breaking the school freshman class record for points and rebounds, she also earned 43 first-team votes, the most for any league freshman. Teammate Shay Doron was named first team all-conference, the first Terrapin to earn the honor since 1994. Third in the ACC in scoring, she also ranked in the top 15 in three other categories. Both Doron and Langhorne scored over 500 points each during the 2004-05 campaign, the first time since the 1988-89 season two Terps were over 500 points in the same year.

The two All-ACC selections for Maryland are the most since 2000.

DORON NAMED KODAK ALL-REGION

Shay Doron added to her list of postseason accolades, earning a spot on the Kodak/WBCA Region II All-American Team. The ninth player in school history to be named regional All-American, she is the first player in 12 years to earn the award and only the second sophomore in school history.

Doron, who was eventually named KODAK/WBCA Honorable Mention All-American, was third in the ACC in scoring and also ranked in the top 15 in the conference in free throw percentage, assists and steals. At Florida State, Doron tallied 39 points, tying the single-game school record, five days after leading the Terps to a big upset over then-No. 5/4 North Carolina, 92-77, netting 37 points.

Doron's 562 points on the season is the fifth-highest, single-season scoring output in school history. She also broke Maryland's season free throw mark for the second-consecutive year, netting 145.

SMITH A FINALIST FOR TOP POINT GUARD

Anesia Smith was selected a finalist for the Nancy Lieberman Award, given to the nation's top point guard. Smith dished out more assists in her senior season that her first three years, combined. Her 214 assists on the year are the third most in school history. She was fifth in the nation and first in the ACC with 6.7 assists per game. Her 1.98 assist-to-turnover ratio was also the best in the league.

FRESE TALLIES 100TH VICTORY

On Feb. 3, 2005 vs. Georgia Tech, the Terps handed Maryland head coach Brenda Frese her 100th-career victory.

A six-year head coaching veteran, Frese, who just completed her third season at the Terrapin helm, won her first game as a head coach at Ball State in 1999.

With the Terps win over UW-Green Bay in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, Frese also notched her 50th victory as head coach of the Terps.

TERPS SET ATTENDANCE RECORDS

Terp fans set a new school record as over 71,000 spectators attended 17 home game last season, over 32,000 more fans than the previous mark which was set in 2003-04.

Maryland also recorded the largest women's basketball crowd in ACC history and the eighth-largest in the nation in 2004-05 when 17,243 fans witnessed the Terrapins take on Duke on Feb. 13, 2005. The figure topped the previous record of 14,500 which Maryland also held. The Terps now hold the top three ACC attendance records of all time.

ALL-TIME TOP ACC ATTENDANCES

1.	17,243	Duke at Maryland, Feb. 13, 2005 Comcast Center, College Park, Md.
2.	14,500	Virginia at Maryland, Feb. 12, 1992 Cole Field House, College Park, Md.
3.	13,446	Duke at Maryland, Feb. 22, 2004 Comcast Center, College Park, Md.

TERPS TOPPLE HEELS

Maryland recorded its first victory over a top-five team since 1992-93 when it defeated then-No. 5/4 North Carolina, 92-77, on Jan. 9, 2005, at Comcast Center. The defeat was one of only five on the season for eventual ACC Champion UNC, and the only double-digit setback.

The Terps defeated three ranked squads in 2004-05, the most victories over ranked teams since the 2000-01 campaign.

2004-05 SEASON RESULTS

GAME 1

#24/24 MARYLAND 94
APPALACHIAN STATE 74

NOVEMBER 19, 2004
HOLMES CENTER

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - The No. 24-ranked Maryland women's basketball team opened the 2004-05 season with a 94-74 win at Appalachian State. All five starters scored in double figures with freshman Crystal Langhorne netting 25 points and seven rebounds to lead the team.

The Terps (1-0) shot 61.9 percent from the field, including 67.9 percent in the second half, to win their sixth-consecutive season opener. Making her Maryland debut, Langhorne was 11-for-14 from the field, en route to team-high 25 points. Sophomore Shay Doron added 20 points in the Terps' cause, going 8-for-13 from the field and 2-for-3 from behind the three-point arc.

With Maryland holding onto a 10-8 lead with 15:37 on the clock, the Terps went on an 11-2 run over a three-minute span, capped off by a Doron three-pointer at the 12:24 mark, to widen its lead to 11 at 21-10.

Appalachian State came to within three points at 21-18 with 10:30 remaining in the opening frame, but Maryland opened up a 47-27 halftime lead, as Langhorne tallied nine of her 13 first-half points to put help put the Terps out in front.

The Terps led by as many as 26 points early in the second half, but ASU started to get hot from the floor, slicing a 55-29 Maryland lead to a 69-61 advantage with 8:11 remaining in the contest when Whitney Tossie converted the lay-up after a steal.

The Mountaineers' Lindsay Smith scored 17 of her game-high 28 points during that key 10-minute stretch, including three treys and a key four-point play from the right baseline.

Doron's three-pointer from the top of the key immediately following a Maryland timeout with 8:11 remaining in the game started a 23-4 run, pushing the Terps' lead to 92-65 to put the game out of reach.

Also in double-digits for Maryland were sophomore Kalika France with 14 and freshman Laura Harper, who had 12 in her collegiate debut. Senior Anesia Smith was an assist shy of a double-double, tallying 10 points and dishing out nine assists, tying her career high.

The 891 fans in attendance marked the highest attendance figure for a women's basketball game in the Holmes Center.

GAME 2

#24/24 MARYLAND 73
SIENA 52

NOVEMBER 21, 2004
COMCAST CENTER

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Sophomore Shay Doron scored 21 points to lead the No. 24/24 Maryland women's basketball team to a 73-52 win over Siena in the team's home opener. Freshman Laura Harper posted her first-career double-double as the Terps move to 2-0 on the season.

After a three-pointer from Katelyn Dooley gave the Saints a 3-2 lead, a Kalika France fastbreak layup gave the advantage back to the Terps who never looked back.

The Terrapins could not shake Siena (0-1) who were close behind for much of the game. A pair of free throws from Dooley tied the ball game at 10-10, but Maryland's 17-5 run, capped by another France layup with 5:43 to go in the half, put it ahead, 27-15. Senior Anesia Smith's free throws at 2:31 gave Maryland its biggest advantage of the half, 32-19. The Saints cut the lead to within nine points with less than a minute to play, but Doron closed out the half sinking three free throws, giving Maryland a 35-23 lead heading into the locker room.

Doron, who has scored in double figures in the last seven games dating back to last season, led all scorers with 16 at the break.

Maryland had struggled in the paint in the first half but was determined to reclaim its inside presence. After having been outrebounded, 22-14, in the first stanza, the Terps held a 23-18 edge on the boards in the second period, including 14 offensive rebounds, and outscored the Saints, 22-10, from inside. Leading the way was Harper who grabbed 10 en route to 14 boards for the contest.

In the second half, the Saints still refused to go away, cutting the Maryland lead to single digits on a number of occasions in the first 11 minutes. A Michelle Blot trey at 10:11 brought Siena to within 47-40, but the Terps responded with a decisive 17-5 tear. France's layup with 4:05 left on the clock put the Terps out in front, 62-45, a lead that never went below 15 points for the duration of the game.

After a Maryland time out, freshman Ashleigh Newman knocked down a three-pointer to put the Terrapins on top, 67-49, with less than two minutes to play. Smith was then perfect from the charity stripe, going 6-for-6, in the final 1:26 to lock up the victory.

Doron had career-highs of seven assists and five steals to accompany her game-high 21 points. France ended the game with 15 points and seven rebounds. Harper also chipped in 12 points.

Dooley led Siena with 15 points on 6-for-13 shooting.

Maryland forced 26 Siena turnovers in the game, scoring 32 points on those opportunities.

COORS CLASSIC

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) - LSU freshman Sylvia Fowles finished with 18 points and 18 rebounds, and Seimone Augustus added 23 points, leading second-ranked LSU to a 64-51 victory over No. 22 Maryland in the opening game of the Coors Classic. Freshman Laura Harper led the Terps with a career-high 17 points and 16 rebounds for her second-straight double-double.

Fowles keyed a second-half run by scoring 15 points. Augustus shot 10-for-23 and scored in double figures for the 32nd straight game for LSU (6-0).

Aside from Harper's team-high 17 points and 16 rebounds for Maryland (2-1), Shay Doron scored in double figures for the ninth-straight game, finishing with 14 points.

Doron completed a three-point play early in the second half, capping a 15-4 run that gave Maryland a 35-33 lead. A basket by Jade Perry put Maryland ahead 39-37.

Fowles then scored eight points in a 12-0 run for LSU, which moved out to a 49-39 lead.

Kalika France made a basket and a free throw that pulled Maryland within 52-49, but Fowles made four free throws in the final 3:08 to help secure the win.

"They really got after us in the second half," Maryland coach Brenda Frese said. "They hurt us down low with their rebounding."

LSU led 29-20 at halftime despite committing 11 turnovers.

Augustus, who scored 11 points in the period, hit a jumper and baby hook in a 6-0 run that put the Tigers ahead 26-18. Maryland shot 0-for-7 and had four turnovers during that five-minute stretch.

Anesia Smith snapped Maryland's scoreless streak with a layup with 3:05 left, and Laura Harper hit an off-balance jumper.

Maryland was the only team to hold a second-half lead against the Tigers this season while also limiting LSU to its lowest point total of the season.

COORS CLASSIC

BOULDER, Colo. - No. 22/22 Maryland cruised to a 76-56 victory over Pennsylvania on the second day of the Coors Classic at the Coors Center. Freshman Laura Harper was named to the five-player all-tournament team.

With the score tied at 11-11, Maryland went on a 14-2 run over a five-minute span in the first half, pulling away from the Quakers and taking a 25-13 lead. Penn scored only four more points in the final six minutes of the period and the Terps added to their advantage, taking a 34-17 lead into the locker room.

Defensively, Maryland did not allow Penn to get into an offensive rhythm, limiting the Quakers to just 19 percent shooting in the period. Freshman Crystal Langhorne led all scorers with 10

The Terps scored the first five points of the second half, swelling their lead to 22 points, 39-17. A 6-0 Penn run, however, brought it to within 39-25. The Quakers cut the lead to 14 points with 11:09 left in the game, 47-33, after the Terps pushed the advantage back up to 18 points, but would get no closer.

The teams traded baskets in the latter part of the half, keeping the Maryland's lead to around an 18 point cushion. A C'Vette Henson trey with 1:16 remaining in the game gave Maryland its biggest lead of the game, 76-53.

Langhorne finished with 16 points, tying with sophomore Shay Doron, to lead the team as every Terrapin saw playing time. Langhorne also had eight boards while Harper grabbed a game-high nine rebounds. Sophomore Kalika France netted 11 points.

The Quakers improved their shooting in the second half, connecting on 41.7 percent of their shots. However, no player on the Penn roster registered double-figure scoring as the Terps posted 10 blocks with Harper and freshman Jade Perry posting three apiece.

Harper earned a spot on the all-tournament team after averaging 12.5 points, 12.5 rebounds and 3.0 blocks over the two games.

GAME 5

#22/23 MARYLAND 77 LOYOLA 36

NOVEMBER 30, 2004
COMCAST CENTER

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - The defense was sharp, the scoring balanced and the rebounding edge overwhelming.

There really wasn't much for coach Brenda Frese to complain about after No. 22 Maryland blew past Loyola, Md. 77-36 Tuesday night.

Laura Harper scored 18 of her 22 points in the first half, and the Terrapins (4-1) pulled away by limiting Loyola to 12 points over the final 20 minutes.

"Obviously, I'm very excited how we played tonight, especially on defense," Frese said.

The Greyhounds (0-3) made only basket in the opening 14 minutes of the second half and missed 45-of-60 field-goal attempts overall.

"Their zone just totally shut us down," Loyola coach Candy Cage said.

Harper, who surpassed her previous career high of 17 by halftime, finished 7-for-10 from the floor and made eight of 11 free throws. She also had eight rebounds.

"Things were just flowing," the freshman said. "Sometimes you can't explain it. My focus this game was on defense."

Crystal Langhorne had 14 points and 10 rebounds, and Kalika France scored 13 for the Terrapins, who have won six straight against their crosstown foes. Leading scorer Shay Doron scored only eight points, but Maryland showed that it doesn't have to depend on just one player for points.

"That's what we're going to have to have," Frese said. "It was nice to see so many players step up."

The Terrapins outrebounded Loyola 29-11 in building a 46-24 halftime lead. Despite committing 15 turnovers, Maryland made 15-of-29 field-goal attempts and went 13-for-16 at the foul line in the first half.

If there was one flaw in the Terrapins' performance, it was that they gave the ball away too many times.

"Twenty-five turnovers is entirely too much," Frese said.

Lauren Troupe and Krystie Harrington scored seven apiece for the Greyhounds, who were outrebounded 50-26.

"We knew that was going to be a tough area for us," said Cage, who believes the young Terrapins will be a tough to beat if they fully mature.

"I think by the end of the season, come March no one's going to want to see them in their bracket," Cage said. "They're going to win a lot of games."

The Terrapins led 24-17 before using a 15-2 run to go up by 20 with 3:55 left in the first half. Harper started the surge by following her own miss with a layup. At that point, all 11 of Maryland's baskets were scored from within the key.

Loyola then bunched its defense inside, and the Terrapins began to connect from long range. Doron hit a 15-footer, and Ashleigh Newman and France sank 3-pointers before France capped the spree with a driving layup

"Once they started doubling," Frese said, "we were able to get our outside game going."

GAME 6

#22/23 MARYLAND 74 XAVIER 72

DECEMBER 4, 2004
CINTAS CENTER

CINCINNATI, Ohio - No. 22/23 Terps women's basketball hung on for a 74-72 victory over Xavier at the Cintas Center. Four Terrapins scored in double figures with sophomore Kalika France leading the way with 21 points. Freshman Crystal Langhorne posted her second-consecutive double-double, tallying 18 points and 11 rebounds.

The ACC's Preseason Rookie of the Year, Langhorne netted 14 points in the first half, including scoring 10 straight in a seven-minute span to keep Maryland in front, 34-33, with 1:18 left to play in the period.

There were 10 lead changes and three ties in the first half and the Terps (5-1) never led by more than six points. With 19 seconds remaining before the break, Miranda Green's layup with 19 seconds on the clock gave Xavier a 37-36 edge. However, sophomore Shay Doron knocked down a three-pointer with six seconds left to put Maryland in front, 39-37, heading into the locker room.

The Terrapins seemed to take control in the second half. France scored seven points, keying an 11-2 run, which put Maryland ahead, 59-47, for its biggest lead of the game with 12:29 to go in the game.

Xavier battled back to within a point, 61-60, going on a 13-2 run of its own capped by a three-point play from Adeloa Olanrewaju at 7:58. Maryland's lead did not grow bigger than five points in the final seven minutes.

Facing a four-point deficit with just 39 ticks on the clock, Xavier called a timeout. When the teams got back on the floor, the Musketeers' Olanrewaju drew a foul with 24 seconds remaining. She sunk both attempts to cut the lead to a basket. Looking to stop the clock, XU immediately committed a foul, but the Terps were not able to capitalize from the charity stripe.

With time winding down, Xavier ran down the court and passed to All-American candidate Tara Boothe who was swarmed by freshmen Laura Harper and Langhorne. Forcing Boothe to make a bad shot, Maryland's Harper hauled down the rebound with two seconds left to secure the win for the Terps.

Doron ended the game with 16 points, a season-high seven rebounds, five assists and a block. Harper contributed 11 points and eight rebounds, three assists and two steals.

Xavier's Boothe led all scorer's with 23 points, while Suntana Granderson added 28 points. Olanrewaju had 13 points and eight boards.

GAME 7

#19/21 MARYLAND 91 ST. BONAVENTURE 42

DECEMBER 7, 2004

COMCAST CENTER

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - #19/21 Maryland women's basketball posted its largest victory in five years, cruising to a 91-42 win over St. Bonaventure at Comcast Center. Sophomore Shay Doron had a season-high 25 points to lead five double-digit scorers as the Terps extended their win streak to four games.

Freshmen Laura Harper and Crystal Langhorne, who were selected ACC Rookies of the Week in back-to-back weeks, posted their third double-doubles of the young season. Langhorne netted 12 points while Harper added 10. Each hauled down 10 boards.

With the score tied at 4-4 in the first half, the Terrapins (6-1) rolled off a 19-0 run, jumping out to a 23-4 lead which the Bonnies (2-4) could not overcome. Langhorne tallied six points during that span.

After allowing Xavier to shoot almost 46 percent from the floor in the Terps' 74-72 victory last weekend, Maryland put on a defensive clinic, limiting St. Bonaventure to five field goals and just 19.2 percent shooting for the half. After Mandi Pierce's shot tied the score at 4-4 with 16:32 on the clock, SBU did not make another basket until 1:03 was left in the period.

Holding a 38-17 lead at the halftime buzzer, the Terps gradually built its lead and put the game away in the second period. Maryland was almost 61 percent from the field in the second half, making 6-of-11 three pointers. Freshman Ashleigh Newman was 3-for-4 from behind the three-point arc in the half, en route to a season-high 11 points. Doron scored 15 of her 25 points in the final 20 minutes.

Junior Charmaine Carr contributed six points, four boards and three assists off the bench. Sophomore Aurelie Norez had seven rebounds, tying a career high. Senior Anesia Smith dished out seven assists and had eight points in the win. All 12 Terrapins saw playing time in the win.

The Terps controlled the paint, once again, outscoring the Bonnies, 40-14. Maryland also forced 27 turnovers, scoring 34 points on those opportunities.

No player on the St. Bonaventure roster reached double digits. Maripier Malo had a team-high nine points in the losing effort. Stefanie Collins, who was averaging 12 points per game, was held scoreless but had seven rebounds.

The win is the biggest for Maryland since Dec. 29, 1999, when the Terps defeated Brown, 98-47. The Terps' 81 field goal attempts (making 38 for 46.9 percent shooting) are the most since Nov. 29, 2002. The Terps were 45-for-86 in the 104-66 win over Rider.

GAME 8

#19/21 MARYLAND 81 MONMOUTH 49

DECEMBER 12, 2004

COMCAST CENTER

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Shay Doron had 20 points and seven steals to lead Maryland (No. 21 ESPN/USA Today, No. 19 AP) to its fifth straight victory, an 81-49 rout of Monmouth.

Crystal Langhorne and Ashleigh Newman each added 11 points for the Terrapins (7-1), who are off to their best start since going 9-1 to open the 1996-97 season.

Monmouth (4-4), which has lost three of four games, got 17 points from Naimh Dwyer and 12 from Courtney Lumpkin.

Playing the Terrapins for the first time since Nov. 11, 1985, the Hawks fell to 0-2 all-time against Maryland.

Monmouth shot 6-for-25 from the field and the Terrapins turned 17 turnovers into 22 points in taking a 40-16 halftime lead. Monmouth's first-half point total was a season-low.

Doron had four points during an 8-0 game-opening run and the Terrapins took advantage of six early Monmouth turnovers for a 14-5 lead.

Consecutive 3-pointers by Brianne Edwards and Dwyer got the Hawks within 16-13 with 11:22 left in the first half, but Monmouth didn't score again until Lumpkin's jumper 4:17 before halftime.

In between, Maryland put together a 14-0 run to take a 31-13 lead.

Langhorne's driving layup started the run, Doron contributed four points and Kalika France hit consecutive 3-pointers — one from the right corner, the other from the left corner.

With 5:39 left in the game, Langhorne capped a 12-2 Maryland run with a fadeaway jumper for a 70-38 lead.

GAME 9

#17/17 MARYLAND 83 COPPIN STATE 51

DECEMBER 20, 2004

COMCAST CENTER

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Sophomore Kalika France scored 15 of her game-high 20 points in the second half, leading #17/21 Maryland to its 10th-straight win over Coppin State in as many tries with an 83-51 romping at Comcast Center.

Maryland won its sixth-straight game to improve to 8-1 on the season, matching its best win streak since 2000-01, while the Lady Eagles fell to 6-3.

France also added a career-high five steals, four assists and four rebounds. Freshman Laura Harper was one rebound short of her fourth double-double, scoring 19 points to go with nine rebounds. Classmate and ACC Preseason Rookie of the Year Crystal Langhorne chipped in 14 points.

Langhorne scored eight points in a 15-0 Maryland run which turned a 17-14 slim lead into a 33-16 advantage with less than 2 and 1/2 minutes to go in the first half. The 17-point lead was the Terps' biggest lead of the half. Maryland turned 12 Coppin turnovers into 20 points, while shooting better than 47 percent from the field.

France and Harper combined to score 13 points in the first 4 minutes and 20 seconds of the second half as the Terrapins tallied the first 15 points of the period to put the game away early, 54-29. The Lady Eagles committed 13 more turnovers and trailed by as many as 35 points, 68-33, with just under nine minutes to go in the game and were never closer than 26 points, 75-49, with less than three minutes to play in the game.

The Terps, who lead the ACC in rebounding margin and rank eighth in the nation as of Dec. 13, outrebounded CSU, 46-30.

Maryland shot almost 51 percent from the field, the fourth time in the last five games it has shot better than 50 percent. The 30+-point margin of victory is the third-straight for the Terps, the first time since the 1988-90 season they have won three-consecutive games by at least 30.

Harper, who was fifth in the conference in field goal percentage heading into tonight's game, hit 7-of-10 buckets, the sixth time this season she has shot better than 60 percent. Langhorne was nearly perfect from the field, going 6-for-7.

TERRAPIN CLASSIC

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Freshman Crystal Langhorne's career-high 26 points and 10 rebounds for her fourth double-double of the season led the No. 17/17 Maryland women's basketball team to a 67-63 win over Massachusetts, the team's seventh-straight victory, on the first day of the Terrapin Classic.

Langhorne had 21 of her season-high 26 points in the first half, two points fewer than UMass had scored, helping the Terps to a 37-23 advantage at the break.

Pam Rosanio's three-pointer gave the Minutewomen a 7-4 lead to open the game, their biggest lead of the contest. However, Maryland's Langhorne polished off a three-point play to even the score at 7-7 with 16:16 remaining in the penod.

At 10:13, Brooke Campbell's jumper pulled the Minutewomen to within, 18-17, but Langhorne's 10 points in a 19-5 Maryland surge gave the Terps a commanding 37-21 advantage and then went into the locker room ahead, 37-23.

The Terps outrebounded the Minutewomen, 25-13, and forced 13 turnovers in the first half to grab onto the lead despite UMass' 42.3 percent shooting.

After the break, the Terrapins pushed its lead back up to 16 points on two more occasions, the last time coming at 18:24 at 41-25. UMass began to claw its way back to within single digits. A 10-1 run keyed by four points from Tamara Tatham brought the Minutewomen to within 42-35. However, Maryland answered with a 13-4 to lead 55-39.

But UMass was not dissuaded in their cause. Despite trailing most of the second penod by double digits, the Minutewomen rallied to get within 63-60, using a 12-0 run capped by Kate Mills' jumper with less than two minutes left to play in the game.

In their attempts to stop the clock, the Minutewomen were called for an intentional foul with just 27 seconds to go. Senior Anesia Smith hit the first of two free throws to give Maryland a four-point edge, 64-60. Then sophomore Shay Doron went 3-for-4 down the stretch to seal the victory for the Terps.

Going 10-for-13 from the field, Langhorne's 26 points is the second most scored by a Terp in Comcast Center. Doron added 18 points and had four assists and three steals.

Maryland, who is playing without the injured Laura Harper for the first time this season, was held to below 70 points for just the second time, but outrebounded the Minutewomen, 40-34.

UMass had four players in double figures. Brooke Campbell netted 12, while Kate Nelson had 11. Rosanio and Tatham each added 10.

TERRAPIN CLASSIC

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - For 20 minutes, Shay Doron and the Maryland women's basketball team looked lost on their home court.

Doron missed seven of eight shots, and the 17th-ranked Terrapins reached halftime Thursday night with a two-point lead over Marshall.

"I definitely was not happy at halftime. We just didn't come out and play inspired, and I don't understand that when you're hosting your own tournament in the championship round," Maryland coach Brenda Frese said.

Doron and her teammates turned things around in the second half, however, and won the Terrapin Classic with an 83-68 victory.

Doron scored 21 of her 26 season-high points after halftime to lead Maryland to its eighth straight win. Tournament MVP Crystal Langhorne scored 20 points for the Terrapins (10-1), who are off to their best start since the 1991-92 season.

"I'm extremely proud of this team," Frese said. "We had set a lot of goals for ourselves, most recently to win this tournament and go into the ACC at 10-1."

Doron finished 9-for-17 from the floor. The sophomore guard made two 3-pointers and went 6-for-8 at the line.

"At halftime I composed myself a little bit," she said. "I got some reassurance from a couple of my teammates and got some easy looks, which gave me a lot of confidence. That's all you really need, one or two quick buckets, and it gets you going again."

Doron scored 10 points in the opening five minutes of the second half to help Maryland take a 49-36 lead. Then, after the Thundering Herd closed to 49-43, Doron made short jumpers and a 3-pointer in an 11-2 run that put Maryland up by 15.

Crystal Champion had 20 points and 11 rebounds for Marshall (5-5), and Kim Griffin contributed 14 points.

Maryland was playing its second game without leading rebounder Laura Harper, who will miss the remainder of the season after tearing her Achilles' tendon during practice Monday. The 6-foot-4 freshman forward was averaging 13 points and 10 rebounds.

She underwent surgery on Thursday afternoon.

Langhorne, the Terrapins' second-leading rebounder, picked up her third foul with 17:33 left and finished with only six rebounds. Anesia Smith had a career-high 14 assists for the Terrapins, and Kalika France had 11 points and 10 rebounds.

Langhorne scored the game's first five points to help Maryland race to a 15-5 lead, but Griffin hit successive 3-pointers to cap a 15-3 spurt that put Marshall ahead for the first time.

Neither team led by more than three points the rest of the half, which ended with the Terrapins up 32-30.

Massachusetts beat Elon 57-50 in the consolation game.

CASSELL COLISEUM

BLACKSBURG, Va. - No. 17 Maryland women's basketball was upset at Virginia Tech, 77-67, in both teams' ACC opener. The Terps could not overcome a 10-point, first-half deficit despite 23-point performance from freshman Crystal Langhorne, her third-straight 20-point outing.

It is only the second loss of the season for the Terps who fell to 10-2. The Hokies, who were playing in their inaugural ACC game, improve to 10-2.

Maryland was within single digits the entire first half until Camie Mason hit a three-pointer with 43 seconds left in the half, giving VT a 36-26 lead.

Langhorne's layup at 16:38 tied the game at 4-4. Mason knocked down back-to-back threes to cap an 8-0 run, putting the Hokies in front, 12-4, to start the game.

The Terps could not get any closer than five points over the next eight minutes until Charmaine Carr's reverse layup cut the lead to 29-25 with 5:39 remaining in the first half. It was the last bucket of the period for Maryland, who struggled from the field, shooting just 30 percent from the field.

The Hokies opened the second half with a 12-5 run to claim their biggest lead of the game, 48-31, with 16:22 to go.

Trailing 59-44 later in the period, another Carr layup at 10:05 sparked a 13-3 run, cutting the VT lead to just 62-59 with 4:10 left on the clock. However, Virginia Tech was able to hold off Maryland down the stretch to pick up its first-ever ACC victory.

The loss snapped an eight-game Terps win streak, their longest since 1996-97.

Langhorne's 23 points led all scorers. Sophomore Shay Doron was 8-for-11 from the free throw line, en route to 17 points. Sophomore Kalika France grabbed a career- and game-high 11 rebounds, while dishing out a team-high four assists.

VT's Mason led four double-digit scorers with 16 points.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Maryland's Shay Doron, Crystal Langhorne and Kalika France have had no trouble scoring all year, but were not supposed to be able to score at will against No. 5 North Carolina

The tno combined for 76 points, including a career-high 37 from Doron, against the Atlantic Coast Conference's second-ranked scoring defense, as the No. 21 Terrapins upset the Tar Heels 92-77 at Comcast Center on Sunday

Doron's 37 points were good for the third-highest total ever by a Maryland women's player The Maryland sophomore sunk 12 free throws dunng a stretch that the Terrapins converted 18 of their last 19 foul shots to seal the win.

"The truth is I didn't even feel like I was scoring a lot," she said "I think that it was so balanced today and nghtfully so My team deserves a lot of credit for my success and for this win."

Langhorne added 23 points and 14 rebounds for her fourth straight 20-point effort France scored 16

"We knew they had three kids that could score and they all did," said North Carolina coach Sylvia Hatchell "We didn't play defense and rebound If you would've told me that this would've happened, I'd say 'no way.'"

The Terps outrebounded the Tar Heels, who grabbed an average of 9 8 more rebounds that their opponents enterng the game, 49-35

Maryland (11-2, 1-1 in the Atlantic Coast Conference) won its first game over a top-five opponent since beatng No 1 Tennessee on Dec. 30, 1992 and snapped a seven-game losing streak to the Tar Heels.

Ivory Latta had 21 points and Nikita Bell added 18 for North Carolina (12-2, 0-1) The Tar Heels, who entered the game shootng a conference-best 47 percent, shot a season-low 38 percent

It was the most points North Carolina allowed since giving up 97 to Duke on Feb 20 2003

"I'm obviously just so proud of this team and that's what we did tonight," said Terps coach Brenda Frese "We truly played like a team unselfishly on the offensive end and the defensive end. This is just a special win for this team and for our program."

Maryland went on a 13-0 run for a 27-15 lead before North Carolina ended the half on a 6-0 run to trail 41-31 at the break

The Tar Heels trailed by as many as 16 before pulling to within six points with 8 33 left, but Maryland would not allow them to get any closer.

GEORGIA TECH 65

JANUARY 13, 2005
ALEXANDER MEMORIAL COLISEUM

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) - Shay Doron scored 28 points and Crystal Langhorne added 14 points and a career-high 15 rebounds to lead No. 15 Maryland to a 72-65 victory over Georgia Tech.

Maryland (12-2, 2-1 Atlantic Coast Conference) led 28-19 at the half and used a 10-0 run early in the second to open a 40-23 lead. Doron and Langhorne each scored four points in building the Terrapins' biggest lead of the game.

Georgia Tech (10-4, 1-2) cut the lead to 70-65 with 9 seconds left on Stephanie Higgs' 3-pointer.

Doron, a sophomore guard, scored 13 points and freshman center Langhorne scored six points and grabbed 13 rebounds for the Terrapins in the opening half. Tech shot only 15.6 percent (7-of-45) in the opening period and Yellow Jackets leading scorer Higgs made only three of 16 shots for seven points. Chioma Nnamaka, Tech's second leading scorer, was 0-for-9 from the field

For the game Georgia Tech shot 24-for-82 (29 percent). Higgs finished with 20 points on 8-of-26 shooting and Nnamaka had seven points, making only 2-of-14. Maryland was 28-of-67 (42 percent).

Maryland jumped out to an 18-7 lead early with Doron scoring eight points. Georgia Tech then went on a 10-0 run capped by Megan Harpnng's basket with 7:39 left in the half

The Terps then outscored Tech 10-2 to take a nine-point lead at the break Doron had five points in the run.

Doron scored a career-high 37 points in Maryland's upset of then-No. 5 North Carolina 92-77 on Sunday to move up from No. 9 in the rankings, it's highest since 1992-93.

Tech was hoping to come back from a 61-38 home loss to Virginia on Monday, it's first home loss of the season and lowest offensive output ever as a Division I member.

GAME 15

FLORIDA STATE 95
#15/17 MARYLAND 91 (OT)

DONALD L. TUCKER CENTER

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) - Roneeka Hodges scored seven of her school-record 39 points in overtime, helping Florida State overcome a 39-point effort by Shay Doron and defeat Maryland (No. 17 ESPN/USA Today, No. 15 AP), 95-91. Doron's 39 points tied a school single-game scoring mark

Hodges made 15-of-26 shots from the field, including all three of her 3-point tnes for the Seminoles (16-2, 3-1 Atlantic Coast Conference), who overcame a 12-point deficit over the final 10 minutes of regulation.

Alicia Gladden had 17 for Florida State, with Ganiyat Adeduntan finishing with 13 and Holly Johnson adding 12 points and a game-high seven assists.

Crystal Langhorne had 19 points before fouling out late in regulation for Maryland, which got 10 from Kalika France.

Doron scored with 43 seconds left in regulation to give Maryland a 78-73 lead, but Florida State — which surpassed its win total of last season — rallied

Adeduntan's three-point play with 28 seconds left cut the lead to two, and after Maryland missed the front end of a one-and-one, Hodges' layup with eight seconds left forced overtime

Anesia Smith made two free throws early in overtime to give Maryland (12-3, 2-2) a one-point lead, but Hodges scored inside and Adedunlan connected on a jumper to put Florida State up 85-82 with 2 48 left

Maryland got within one on three occasions down the stretch, but Linnea Liljestrand's 3-pointer with 41 seconds remaining sealed the win for the Seminoles.

Florida State made six of eight shot attempts in the extra session Maryland shot 58.3 percent from the field, compared with 47.8 percent shooting by the Seminoles — but Florida State scored 27 points off 22 turnovers by the Terrapins

#16/18 MARYLAND 63
VIRGINIA 60

JANUARY 20, 2005
COMSCAT CENTER

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Shay Doron had a sore shoulder, yet Maryland coach Brenda Frese expenenced far more pain than her star guard during the Terrapins' narrow 63-60 victory over Virginia.

Crystal Langhorne had 16 points and 17 rebounds, and Doron sparked a late surge that made the difference for No. 16 Maryland on Thursday night.

The Terrapins (13-3, 3-2 Atlantic Coast Conference) won despite committing 23 turnovers, shooting 41 percent and going 17-for-33 at the foul line.

"I think I would have preferred to get drilled by the dentist than watch that game tonight," Frese said. "It was not pretty."

Doron scored 21 points and Kalika France had 14 for the Terrapins, who are 9-0 at home for the first time since the 1991-92 season.

Takisha Granberry and Shamee Zoll had 13 points apiece for the Cavaliers (13-5, 3-2), who went 23-for-74 from the floor (31 percent) and were outrebounded 56-38

"I felt like we never really got on track tonight," Virginia coach Debbie Ryan said. "We got some really good looks that we normally put down. We just were not on our game."

Doron came in averaging 35 points over her last three games, but played much of the night with a sprained right shoulder. After scoring 10 points before halftime, she spent the opening 2½ minutes of the second half in the training room.

"At halftime it gets really stiff," she said. "I just have to play through it."

Doron's first shot upon returning was an air-ball, and she had to be helped to the bench with 10:29 left after being thrust into the first row of courtside seats on a foul by Granberry.

"That initial hit was a little bit of a shock," she said, "but once the pain died down I got right back in."

Doron came off the bench five minutes later with the score tied at 45, and the Terrapins promptly used successive layups by Langhorne, France and Doron to go up by six with 4 minutes left.

Doron made the lead stand up, scoring 10 of Maryland's final 14 points. She finished 7-for-11 from the floor and had seven rebounds.

"Slowly but surely, I'll get back to 100 percent," she said.

The 17 rebounds were a career high for Langhorne, a freshman playing in her 16th college game.

"The rebounding killed us," Ryan said. "Seventeen rebounds by one person is crazy."

Virginia missed 21 of its first 27 shots but closed the first half with a 7-0 run to take a 27-26 lead. The Cavaliers shot 26 percent before the break and were outrebounded 30-20, but Maryland was hindered by 14 turnovers.

GAME 17

NC STATE 67
#16/18 MARYLAND 55

JANUARY 23, 2005
COMSCAT CENTER

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - North Carolina State coach Kay Yow figured the best way to beat No. 16 Maryland was to focus on stopping the Terrapins' two leading scorers, Crystal Langhorne and Shay Doron.

The Wolfpack executed the game plan to near perfection, and the result was a 67-55 victory Sunday.

Billie McDowell had 18 points and nine rebounds, and Tiffany Stansbury and Khadija Whittington each scored 16 for NC State (15-4, 4-2 Atlantic Coast Conference). But the key was a defense that effectively shut down two of the league's top scorers.

Langhorne had 13 points and 19 rebounds, but was 4-for-11 from the floor. Doron, who came in averaging 20.6 points, scored only 2 points on 1-for-12 shooting.

"Defense is always a large part of our game plan," Yow said. "We knew Langhorne was a person we had to key on, and we knew Doron was."

Langhorne proved difficult to contain on the boards _ "At our best effort she got 19 rebounds today," Yow said _ but Doron simply couldn't shake the Wolfpack's aggressive guards.

Still showing the effects of a sore right shoulder that's been bothering her for nearly two weeks, Doron missed all six of her field-goal tries in the first half and was held scoreless over the final 18 minutes.

"I don't think we can take complete credit for two points for a player like Doron," Yow said.

Doron, who has not practiced since hurting the shoulder against Georgia Tech on Jan. 13 said, "I knew coming in it was going to be sore, but that's never an excuse for shooting that poorly. I definitely think their defense keyed on me, and they did a good job."

Kalika France scored 11 and for the Terrapins (13-4, 3-3), who fell to 9-1 at home.

It was the third straight win for NC State, which never trailed after taking control with a 16-0 run midway through the first half.

"We started turning the ball over and missed a lot of transition opportunities," Maryland coach Brenda Frese said. "That's a credit to their defense I think they're one of the best defensive teams that we'll face in the conference."

Down 31-18 after shooting 27 percent over the first 20 minutes, the Terrapins came out firing _ and connecting _ after halftime. France hit a 3-pointer and Doron connected on a jumper from the corner to spark a 14-2 run in the opening four minutes.

McDowell and Rachel Stockdale then hit successive 3-pointers, and a three-point play by Whittington made it 42-34.

Maryland closed to 50-47 before the Wolfpack used an 8-2 surge to go up 58-49 with 4:30 left. Stockdale started the run with a 3-pointer and Stansbury ended it with a three-point play.

That was enough to ensure NC State a victory in its second outing since Yow returned after missing two games while being treated for a reoccurrence of breast cancer.

GAME 18

#1/4 DUKE 60
#20/22 MARYLAND 57

JANUARY 27, 2005
CAMERON INDOOR STADIUM

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) - Monique Currie scored 18 of her 24 points after halftime and rattled in the go-ahead jumper with 41.2 seconds left, helping Duke pull out a 60-57 victory over No. 20 Maryland.

Currie also hit two key free throws late for the Blue Devils (19-2, 5-1 Atlantic Coast Conference), and finished with 13 rebounds in 39 minutes. Wanisha Smith added 14 points for Duke, which has won 10 straight and 13-of-14 against the Terrapins (13-5, 3-4).

Maryland led early in the second half and fought the Blue Devils the entire way, tying the game at 55 on Crystal Langhorne's three-point play with 49 seconds left.

Duke called a timeout and set up a play for Currie, who took the pass and found herself wide open after a good screen from Mistie Williams. She launched the 16-foot jumper, which rattled around the rim before dropping through for a 57-55 lead.

Then, after Shay Doron missed a shot on the other end, Currie hit two free throws with 21 1 seconds left to increase the lead to four.

Maryland kept fighting, getting a jumper from Anesia Smith with 13 3 seconds left to cut it to 59-57. Then, after Jessica Foley made one of two free throws to increase the margin to three, the Terrapins called a timeout with 3.8 seconds left with a chance to send the game into overtime.

But the Terrapins didn't get a good shot, with Ashleigh Newman shooting an airball on a 3-point try just before the horn.

Maryland coach Brenda Frese was pleased with her team's defensive effort, which slowed an offense that averages 80 points. But in the end, her team couldn't get the stop when it needed most.

"We talked about it every timeout and we knew they were going to (Currie)," she said. "But with Duke, they have a lot of weapons and Monique is unselfish, so if you double-down too much off their shooters you're going to get burned that way."

Duke shot 38 percent and went 0-for-9 from 3-point range, ending a 241-game streak of hitting at least one 3-point shot.

Maryland didn't take advantage, shooting 40 percent and going 0-for-5 from behind the arc.

Doron scored 16 points to lead the Terrapins, while Langhorne had 14 points and nine rebounds.

GAME 19
#20/22 MARYLAND 84 ARIZONA 77 (OT)
JANUARY 29, 2005
MCKALE CENTER

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) - Shay Doron scored 26 points, including a crucial three-point play in overtime to give No. 20 Maryland an 84-77 victory over Arizona.

Maryland took a 77-75 lead with 1:18 remaining on a lay-in by Crystal Langhorne, but it was not until Doron's three-point play on a drive through the lane— that put the game out of reach with 40 seconds left.

The Terrapins (14-5) took advantage of the extra time after Maryland's Jade Perry connected on an 8-foot jumper at the buzzer to end regulation play.

Doron also had four free throws in overtime to help the Maryland cause. The Terrapins got 20 points and 16 rebounds from Langhorne. It was Langhorne's fifth double-double in the last seven games. Kalika France added 17 points.

Arizona (15-6) was led by 19 points from Shawtinice Polk. Jessica Arnold had 18, while Danielle Adefeso, Natalie Jones and Ashley Whisonant each had 11.

Maryland needed the last second shot in regulation, but Arizona required more down the stretch before overtime. Trailing 67-60 with 1:16 remaining, the Wildcats got a lay-up by Dee-Dee Wheeler and then a four-point play from Jones to close to within one.

Jones followed it up with a deep three-pointer from the corner to give Arizona a 69-67 lead with 3.2 seconds left. After two passes were batted out of bounds, Perry connected on a shot that was reviewed by officials to make sure it was attempted before time expired.

Maryland maintained the lead throughout the second half, but down the stretch France kept the Wildcats from catching up. France's three-pointer put Maryland ahead 59-54 with 4:14 remaining. After a Polk short jumper, France responded with a quick bucket inside and then added a lay-up after the Terrapins beat the full court press for a 63-56 lead.

The Terrapins started out the second half slowly, seeing their 40-30 lead at the break evaporate with Arizona scoring the first nine points.

Arnold had five points off dives, including a three-point play, and Polk added a pair of inside buckets to get to within one.

Maryland re-established control by scoring seven straight, with Aurelie Norrez capping the run with a three-point play for a 47-39 lead with 15:17 left. The Terrapins took a 10-point lead at halftime by scoring the final nine points.

Ahead by one, Doron connected on a three-pointer to get the Terrapins started. Langhorne added a jumper before Maryland got a pair of free throws apiece from Ashleigh Newman and Doron to put the finishing touches on a first half where the Terrapins shot 56 percent from the field.

#20/21 MARYLAND 84 GEORGIA TECH 67
FEBRUARY 3, 2005
COMCAST CENTER

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - After earning her 100th victory as a college coach, Maryland's Brenda Frese was far more interested in talking about her improving basketball team than reaching a personal milestone.

Shay Doron and Crystal Langhorne each scored 18 points, and the 20th-ranked Terrapins cruised past Georgia Tech, 84-67.

Maryland led by 12 with 11 minutes elapsed, upped the margin to 20 at halftime and breezed through the second half in improving to 10-1 at home. The Terrapins shot 52 percent and had 21 assists compared to only 12 turnovers.

"I thought it was by far one of the most unselfish games we've played as a team," Frese said. "You look at a positive assist-to-turnover ratio, having four players step up and score in double figures, and doing a tremendous job of moving the ball on offense."

The 34-year-old Frese has a 100-66 record in five-plus seasons. She spent two years at Ball State and one at Minnesota before coming to Maryland, where she's 43-36.

"Those 100 wins are about the teams that I've coached in three different programs. The players, as well as my assistant coaches, get the credit for the wins," she said. "But obviously I'm very excited to be able to do it at home in front of our great fans. That means a lot."

Most of her players weren't aware of the milestone until the fans began holding up signs that said "100" as the game neared its conclusion.

"I didn't know," Doron. "I think she wants to win regardless of 100 or not 100. I don't think that went through her mind."

Anesia Smith had 11 assists and 10 rebounds, and Kalika France scored 14 points for the Terrapins (15-5, 4-4 Atlantic Coast Conference), who completed their first regular-season sweep of the Yellow Jackets since the 1997-98 season.

Chioma Nnamaka scored 18 points, and Janie Mitchell had 17 for the Yellow Jackets (12-7, 3-5), who have lost five of seven. The Yellow Jackets committed 12 turnovers and went 8-for-26 from the field in falling behind 42-22 at halftime.

"I didn't think my that my team showed up in the first half," Yellow Jackets coach MaChelle Joseph said. "I just didn't feel like we were ready to play."

Asked to assess Frese's influence on the sport, Joseph said, "Brenda has done a tremendous job from the time she started at Ball State. I have nothing but respect for her, her work ethic and her ability to recruit. I see nothing but a bright future for Maryland."

The Terrapins yielded one basket and forced six turnovers in the opening 6 minutes to take an 8-2 lead. Minutes later, Doron made two straight 3-pointers and added a foul shot to cap an 11-2 run that made it 23-10.

It was 35-22 before France hit a 3-pointer and Langhorne added a layup to start a 7-0 spree into the break.

After Georgia Tech closed to 48-30 in the second half, Langhorne scored five points in an 11-2 surge that put the Terps up by 27 with just over 14 minutes left.

#20/21 MARYLAND 87 CLEMSON 82
FEBRUARY 6, 2005
LITTLEJOHN COLISEUM

CLEMSON, N.C. (AP) - Ashleigh Newman hit seven 3-pointers and finished with a career-high 21 points for No. 20 Maryland, sending Clemson to its eighth straight loss, 87-82.

Kalika France scored 14 of her 19 points in the second half for the Terps (16-5, 5-4 Atlantic Coast Conference), who had a school-record tying 11 3-pointers. France had four of the 3s.

D'Lesha Lloyd led Clemson (7-14, 1-8) with 18 points and Reggie Maddox had 17.

Crystal Langhorne had 12 points and 13 rebounds for Maryland. Shay Doron, the Terps leading scorer at nearly 20 points a game, finished with 12, including eight from the foul line.

Clemson rallied from a 13-point deficit to a 72-all tie with 4:34 to go. But France followed with her final 3-pointer and had a three-point play down the stretch.

Newman was held scoreless after the break, going 0-for-3. France and point guard Anesia Smith then took over on offense for Maryland. Smith had all 12 of her points in the second half for the Terps, who had five players finish in double figures.

Clemson's plan was to hold Maryland's two-leading scorers, Doron and Langhorne, in check. While the pair was held to 6-of-14 shooting and 24 points (12 fewer than their season average), the Lady Tigers couldn't stop the outside display of Newman and France.

Newman's touch early on spurred an 18-5 run that put Maryland ahead 39-26 in the opening half. When Newman closed the period with her seventh three, she looked like she would easily break the school record of eight, set by Tiffany Brown against Clemson in 2000. The league record of nine was set by North Carolina State's Jennifer Howard in 1995.

But Clemson toughened its defense on Newman dunnig its comeback. Lloyd and Maddox had eight points each as the Lady Tigers went on 22-4 run to lead 56-51 midway through the period.

Smith scored Maryland's next eight points to keep the game tight. France's third 3-pointer with 4 16 left broke the final tie and gave the Terps a 75-72 lead. After France and Doron converted three-point plays, Maryland was up 81-72.

Clemson couldn't get closer than three points the rest of the way.

Maryland hadn't made more than eight 3-pointers in a game this season The Terps tied the school mark of 11 set against Fairleigh Dickinson on Nov. 30, 1999

#19/21 MARYLAND 77
WAKE FOREST 67

FEBRUARY 10, 2005
COMCAST CENTER

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - It would have been easy for Maryland to look past Wake Forest toward Sunday's showdown against No. 3 Duke.

Instead, the 19th-ranked Terrapins kept their attention on the task at hand, and the result was a 77-67 victory Thursday night that gave them a boost of confidence heading into their matchup against the Atlantic Coast Conference leaders

"Now we can definitely focus on Duke," said Maryland guard Shay Doron, one of four Terrapins to score in double figures against Wake Forest.

The Terrapins, who are seeking to shatter the single-game ACC attendance record of 14,500 on Sunday, already have distributed more than 15,000 tickets to the contest.

Maryland (17-5, 6-4 ACC) has won four straight since falling to the Blue Devils 60-57 on the road late last month. Now, the Terps get a chance for revenge

"There's definitely been a lot of hoopla for the game," Maryland coach Brenda Frese said. "I think our team is excited, and will be ready to play."

Against Wake Forest, Crystal Langhorne scored 15 points, and Jade Perry and Ashleigh Newman had 12 apiece. Langhorne and Doron have carned the Terps' offense for much of the season, but recently they've been getting plenty of help

"It makes it much harder to game-plan for us," Doron said. "It proves we have more than a two-dimensional offense."

It certainly was too much for Wake Forest, which fell to 12-44 against Maryland in the series that began in 1977

"They're a real good offensive team," Demon Deacons coach Mike Petersen said. "They've got great balance, they can score in the lane and score in the perimeter."

Liz Strunk and Porsche Jones each scored 18, and Erin Ferrell had 10 points and 13 rebounds for the Demon Deacons (13-9, 2-7), who have lost four in a row

Up 41-32 at halftime, the Terrapins held the Demon Deacons scoreless for the opening 4 minutes of the second half in upping the margin to 15.

Wake Forest scored eight straight points to close to 53-46 before two free throws by Aurelie Noirez and a layup by Perry sparked a 10-0 surge that made it 63-46 with 9 21 remaining.

The Demon Deacons cut the gap to 8, but could get no closer.

Langhorne had 12 points in the first half on 6-for-9 shooting, and the Terrapins shot 54 percent from the floor to take control.

Strunk scored 11 first-half points and Wake's leading scorer, Cotelia Bond-Young, hit a desperation 22-footer at the buzzer - her only basket before halftime.

Bond-Young, who came in averaging 16 6 points, finished with nine points on 3-for-14 shooting, including 3-for-11 from beyond the arc.

"They did a real good job guarding her," Petersen said. "A number of her attempts were under duress."

#3/4 DUKE 60
#19/21 MARYLAND 49

FEBRUARY 13, 2005
COMCAST CENTER

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Some of it was stage fright. Much of it can be attributed to Duke's defense

Whatever the reason, Maryland picked an awful time to have one of its poorest shooting games of the season.

Playing before the largest crowd to watch an Atlantic Coast Conference women's basketball game, the 19th-ranked Terrapins clanged several dozen shots off the rim Sunday and fell to No. 3 Duke 60-49.

Maryland went 23-for-68 from the field (34 percent) and 1-for-6 at the line, much to the dismay of many of the 17,243 in attendance - and coach Brenda Frese.

"It was a tough shooting night for us, probably the worst game we've had," Frese said. "Duke's a great team, and they took us out of a lot defensively. They were very tough inside."

Monique Cume scored 14 points, and Chante Black had 13 rebounds and eight points for the Blue Devils (23-2, 9-1). It was Duke's 11th straight victory over Maryland and fifth consecutive overall.

The previous record for attendance at an ACC women's game was 14,500, when No. 1 Maryland hosted No. 2 Virginia at Cole Field House on Feb. 12, 1992. The Terps and Blue Devils drew 13,446 at the Comcast Center last season, then the second-biggest crowd for an ACC women's game.

Shay Doron scored 18 and Kalika France had 13 for the Terrapins (17-6, 6-5), whose average attendance at home before Sunday was 3,336.

One night earlier, 17,950 fans packed the arena for the Duke-Maryland men's game, won by the Terps in overtime. Although Sunday's contest wasn't a sellout, there was a pregame traffic jam, a television crew from ESPN and an enthusiastic student section that was filled long before the opening tip

"It was a tremendous environment for women's basketball," Duke coach Gail Goestenkors said

The Blue Devils played before 11,459 earlier this season at Tennessee so the big crowd wasn't really a big deal to the many of the players

"It just gave us more energy to keep going at it," Black said

The Terrapins had won four straight and lost by only three points at Duke last month, but Sunday they came away with only a memory - not a victory

"Our team can be very proud of the fact that we broke the all-time attendance record," Frese said. "After they're done playing, they're going to remember that for a long time."

Down 27-23 at halftime, Maryland opened the second half with a 9-0 run, dunng which Duke missed eight straight shots. Doron had five points in the surge, including one of the Terrapins' two 3-pointers.

The Blue Devils responded with a 10-0 spree - two points apiece by five players - to go up 37-33 with 11:15 left. Maryland closed to 39-38 before a 3-pointer by Wanisha Smith and a 15-footer by Wynter Whitley put Duke ahead by six

After Doron scored in the lane, Jessica Foley hit a 3-pointer, and Black made two free throws to make it 49-40 with 2:33 to go.

Duke missed 13 of its first 16 shots, yet the game was tied at 12 after 13 minutes because the Terrapins were 6-for-23 from the field and missed all four foul shots.

"It wasn't a pretty game, but both teams played exceptional defensively," Goestenkors said

Cume, playing with two broken bones in her left foot, made only three of 12 field-goal tnes. But she was 8-for-11 at the line and grabbed nine rebounds

MIAMI 65

FEBRUARY 17, 2005
CONVOCATION CENTER

CORAL GABLES, Fla. - Freshman center Crystal Langhorne scored 29 points and grabbed 22 rebounds for her league-leading 11th double-double of the season, as #20/21 Maryland defeated Miami, 70-65, in an Atlantic Coast Conference contest at The Convocation Center. Langhorne is the first Terrapin to score 20+ points and grab 20+ rebounds since Myra Waters had 25 points and 20 rebounds against Georgetown on Dec. 6, 1980.

Maryland (18-6, 7-5 ACC), which picked up the program's 200th ACC victory, saw its eight-point lead dwindle to two at 67-65 when Tamara James made a jumper with 46 seconds left to play. Sophomore Kalika France, who had nine points, five rebounds and five assists, knocked down three free throws in the final 10 seconds to give Maryland its first winning record away from home since the 2000-01 season.

Miami (12-13, 4-8 ACC), which trailed by 10 in the second half, used a 20-6 run to take a 48-44 lead with 9:41 remaining. James scored 10 of her team-high 27 points during that spurt, while Yolanda McCormick, who had 13 points and 6 assists, chipped in with seven.

The Terrapins, who will now finish with at least a .500 record in league play in back-to-back seasons for the first time 1993-94, tied the game at 48-48 on a layup by junior forward Charmaine Carr. Sophomore guard Shay Doron, who scored 13 of her 20 points in the second half on 6-of-7 shooting, hit back-to-back jumpers to give UM a 52-48 advantage with 7:43 remaining.

The Hurricanes, which lost to Maryland in the first round of last season's NCAA Tournament, led the Terrapins 23-16 with 5:16 to go in the first half, but the visitors tallied eight straight points and 14 of the half's final 17 markers to take a 30-26 lead into intermission. Langhorne posted 17 points and 10 rebounds in the first half to lead all scorers.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. - No. 20/21 Maryland women's basketball fell to Virginia, 63-61, on Sunday afternoon in ACC action in Charlottesville, Va. Freshman Crystal Langhorne continues to make a strong case for ACC Rookie of the Year, recording her 12th double-double of the season, despite the setback

Virginia's LaTonya Blue (18-8, 7-5 ACC) led all scorers with a career-high 29 points, including seven of the Cavaliers' final nine points.

Maryland's (18-7, 7-6 ACC) balanced attack was not enough to claim the win. Sophomore Shay Doron led the Terps with 15 points, while Langhorne netted 11 points to go with 12 rebounds. Sophomore Kalika France had 10 points in the loss, with senior Anesia Smith contributing nine.

In the first half, after Virginia took a 9-5 lead just under four minutes into the game, the Terps answered with a 16-4 run over the next eight minutes to jump ahead, 21-13. But the Wahoos came back to tie the game, 25-25, with four minutes remaining in the first period and eventually took a two-point lead into the half, 31-29.

The Terps shot 48.1 percent from the field, but had trouble taking care of the ball, committing 10 first-half turnovers.

The second half saw Virginia extend its lead to 44-38, but back-to-back traditional three-point plays by France and Smith tied the game up for the eighth time, 44-44

After the Terrapins built a seven-point lead, 55-48, at 6:53, the Cavaliers evened the game for the ninth and final time at 57-57 on a three-pointer by Blue. Blue sandwhiched a jumper and a pair of free throws around a Doron jumper gave the home team a four-point lead with 24 seconds remaining to seal the win. Smith's jumper at the buzzer resulted in the final score, 63-61.

COMCAST CENTER

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - No. 23/22 Maryland women's basketball could not overcome a 48-39 first-half deficit and eventually fell to Virginia Tech, 87-79, in the Terps' ACC regular season finale at Comcast Center. Freshman Crystal Langhorne, who sat out much of the first half because of foul trouble, had 17 points and 15 rebounds in the second period and ended with 19 points and 16 boards for her ACC-leading 13th double-double of the season.

The Terps (18-8, 7-7 ACC) finish with a .500 record in the ACC for the second-straight season, the first time they have posted back-to-back non-losing conference seasons since 1992-93 and 1993-94. Seedings for the ACC Tournament will be determined at the conclusion of the ACC regular season on Monday, Feb. 28.

Maryland did not have trouble scoring, shooting 47.4 percent in the game But it had trouble containing the Hokies' (16-10, 5-8 ACC) attack which shot 57.6 percent from the field, including 60.6 percent in the first half. The Terps also had trouble taking care of the ball, turning it over 24 times VT took advantage of those miscues, scoring 27 points off those opportunities.

After senior Anesia Smith scored Maryland's first two buckets of the game, giving the Terps a 4-2 lead, Virginia Tech (16-10, 5-8) responded with back-to-back layups and never trailed the rest of the game

The Terps fell behind in the first half, 20-12, but a 17-9 run tied the game, 29-29, with 6:55 remaining in the period. The Hokies, however, came back with a 15-4 streak to claim its biggest lead of the half, 44-33. Free throws in the final two minutes of the half, four coming from sophomore Kalika France and two from classmate Shay Doron kept the game within reach and the teams headed into the locker rooms with VT on top, 48-39

In the second half, the Hokies extended its lead to 13 points, 63-50, on a Roshana Jackson layup The Terps got as close as nine on two occassions, that last time at 7:23 with two Langhorne free throws. But VT pushed its lead back up to 13 at 75-62 with less than five minutes left to play in the game.

Maryland would not give up, however, battling to within 79-75 with 2:40 left but could not get any closer. The Hokies hit six free throws to end the game and hold off the Terrapins' comeback.

Langhorne, who has struggled from the free throw line this season, was 9-for-12 from the charity stripe en route to 19 points. Doron was perfect from the line, hitting on all seven attempts to finish with 20 points and five rebounds. France was also a perfect 6-for-6 and added 14 points Freshman Jade Perry had 10 points.

COMCAST CENTER

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Freshman Crystal Langhorne scored a career-high 33 points and grabbed 11 rebounds for her 14th double-double of the season, lifting the #25/22 Maryland women's basketball team to an 87-79 win over Northern Colorado to pick up its 19th win of the season, the most since 1989-90.

On Senior Night, every dressed Terrapin (19-8) on the roster saw playing time Senior Anesia Smith, who was playing in the final regular-season home game of her career, dished out 11 assists

The Bears (10-15), who were looking for the upset bid, went 16-32 from beyond the three-point line, including 8-14 (57.1) in the first half. Jena Fosdick led Northern Colorado with 29 points and seven assists

Each time Maryland seemed to be in control of the game, the Bears would answer with a three-pointer to stop the run. After the Terps went ahead 68-67 with 8:28 remaining on a freshman Ashleigh Newman trey, Northern Colorado responded with a Kirsten Van Orden jumper and a Fosdick three to take a 72-68 advantage with just over five minutes left on the clock

With the game tied once again at 77-77, the Terps went on an 8-2 run in the final 2:58 to take control and come away with the win

France scored the game's final basket and had seven points over the last 5:20 to help put the game out of reach late. Newman had two key blocks and an assist over that stretch and finished the game with 10 points, two rebounds and four assists. Shay Doron chipped in with 11 points in 23 minutes, and the inside combination of Jade Perry and Aurelie Norez connected on 6-of-10 field goals to post 12 points and eight rebounds

CLEMSON 55

MARCH 4, 2005
GREENSBORO COLISEUM
ACC TOURNAMENT

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP) - Crystal Langhorne had 24 points and 16 rebounds to lead No. 25 Maryland past Clemson 66-55 in the first round of the Atlantic Coast Conference tournament.

Kalika France added 12 points for the sixth-seeded Terrapins (20-8), who advanced to face third-seeded North Carolina State in Saturday's quarterfinals

Reggie Maddox scored 12 points to lead the 11th-seeded Tigers (8-20), who closed their worst season under 17th-year head coach Jim Davis

Langhorne - who was named the ACC rookie of the year on Thursday shot 10-for-18 from the floor.

Langhorne went 6-for-11 from the floor with nine rebounds in the first half. No other Maryland player scored more than four points, and the Terrapins shot just 39 percent, but their sluggish start hardly mattered against the woeful Tigers

Clemson shot just 9-for-32 and had 15 turnovers, allowing Maryland to build a 32-20 halftime lead that was never seriously threatened after the break.

Davis is a two-time ACC coach of the year and is Clemson's winningest coach with 355 victories. He led the Tigers to the 1996 and 1999 ACC tournament titles, but his program had gone just 17-12, 14-15 and 17-12 in the past three seasons

Things just got worse this year - and one sequence in the first half against Maryland seemed to sum it all up.

With the Terrapins leading 22-15, Charmaine Carr went to the line for a 1-and-1 opportunity. She missed the first, but Clemson was whistled for a lane violation to give Carr a second try. Carr made that one and missed the second, but the Tigers were again whistled for a lane violation.

And again, Carr made the do-over.

Things didn't get much better after that for Clemson. The Tigers managed to cut the deficit to below double-figures a handful of times, but Langhorne and the Terrapins always had an answer.

With Maryland holding a 50-41 lead, Langhorne got loose inside for a score off a feed from Ashleigh Newman with about eight minutes left. Then, after a 3-pointer from Shay Doron and a basket from France, Langhorne scored inside again to push the lead to 59-43 with 5:21 to play.

MARCH 5, 2005
GREENSBORO COLISEUM
ACC TOURNAMENT QUARTERFINAL

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP) - Crystal Langhorne had her sixth straight double-double and Jade Perry nearly matched her season high with 11 points, helping No. 25 Maryland hold off 19th-ranked North Carolina State 63-56 Saturday night in the Atlantic Coast Conference quarterfinals.

Maryland (21-8) advanced to face sixth-ranked Duke in the semifinals. The Blue Devils beat Wake Forest 107-50 earlier Saturday

Two days after she was selected the league's Freshman of the Year, Langhorne had 23 points and 16 rebounds. She shot 9-of-14 and easily got the better of the Wolfpack's four-player post rotation to reach double figures in points and rebounds for the 16th time this season.

Leading scorer Shay Doron had another rough outing against N.C. State and finished with 10 points on 4-of-12 shooting. In the earlier matchup, won 67-55 by the Wolfpack, Doron was only 1-for-12 for two points.

But her final basket in this one was the biggest. With the Terrapins' lead down to one in the final minute, Doron drove in the lane and lofted an off-balanced one-hander. The ball bounced around the rim before dropping through, and when Kendra Bell's 3-pointer missed everything on the other end, sixth-seeded Maryland had control.

Kalika France sealed the victory by racing ahead of the pack for a layup with 19 seconds left, and she was fouled on the play. When her free throw was off, she raced in for the rebound, and the Terrapins held on.

Bell led third-seeded N.C. State (21-7) with 15 points, and Tiffany Stansbury added 11.

Earlier, a rough defensive possession for the Wolfpack appeared to give them energy. Trailing 51-43, they had three different players called for fouls in a span of about 30 seconds, and they also allowed an offensive rebound. The third foul was their seventh of the half and put Maryland's Jade Perry on the line for one-and-one, but she missed the first.

On the other end, Bell pulled up for a jumper just inside the paint to cut the margin to six, and after France clanged a 3-pointer off the rim, Khadija Whittington powered inside and forced a foul by Perry.

Whittington missed both shots, but N.C. State continued to play aggressively. McDowell slapped the ball away from Ashleigh Newman for a steal. Bell drove for a layup and Stansbury got loose inside for a basket over Langhorne, and the Wolfpack were within four.

Later, after another miss by France, Bell swished her third 3 of the game to cut the margin to one. N.C. State missed a chance to take its first lead on the second half when Stansbury couldn't covert from in close - with Bell wide open in the corner - and Perry followed a miss by Smith to make it 57-54.

Perry's previous best of 12 points came against Wake Forest, and that was one of only two games in double figures in the regular season. In this one, she proved to be the perfect complement to Langhorne, added six rebounds and missing only one of her six free throws.

ACC TOURNAMENT SEMIFINAL

GREENSBORO, N.C. - The No. 25 Maryland women's basketball team's run in the ACC Tournament came to an end in the semifinal round, losing to sixth-ranked Duke, 74-44. The sixth-seeded Terps had reached the semifinal round for the second-straight year and closed out the tournament with a 21-9 record, the most wins since the 1992-93 season.

Maryland will have to wait until next Sunday, March 13 when the NCAA announces the Division I Championship bracket. The Terps are hosting the first and second rounds on March 20 and 22 at Comcast Center.

Senior Anesia Smith (Alexandria, Va./Hayfield) led the Terps with 12 points, while freshman Crystal Langhorne (Willingboro, N.J./Willingboro) added 11.

Maryland struggled offensively, shooting just 13.6 percent from the field in the first half. The Terps trailed just 10-8 with 9:24 remaining in the first half after Langhorne connected on a pair of free throws. The Blue Devils, however, proceeded to go on a 21-2 run to close out the half and take a 33-11 lead

Despite its offensive struggles, the Terps never gave up. Maryland went on an 11-1 run to make it 48-26 with 8:46 remaining. Sophomore Shay Doron (Great Neck, N.Y./Christ the King) and Langhorne each contributed four points during that span.

The Terps hung in tough over the final nine minutes, putting pressure on the Blue Devils all over the court and trading baskets. Maryland came to within 55-33 with 7:30 left. Duke used free throws down the stretch to build its lead back up again and advance to the championship game, 74-44

Langhorne ended the game with five rebounds, making her three-game total 37, the third-most in ACC Tournament history in three games

NCAA TOURNAMENT FIRST ROUND

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Shay Doron wasn't about to let Maryland blow the opportunity to play another NCAA Tournament game at home

Doron scored 26 points and sparked a second-half surge that carried the Terrapins past Wisconsin-Green Bay 65-55 in a first-round contest.

Playing on its home floor and before a partisan crowd, seventh-seeded Maryland (22-9) used a 14-2 run to take a 56-45 lead with 5:17 left. That was enough to dispatch the Phoenix, who had won five straight and 21 of 22

Crystal Langhorne had 16 points and 10 rebounds for the Terrapins, one of seven Atlantic Coast Conference teams in the NCAA Tournament. Doron, a 5-foot-9 sophomore, scored 18 after halftime.

The Terrapins will next face No. 2 seed Ohio State, which advanced with an 86-45 rout of Holy Cross. That game will also be played at the Comcast Center, where Maryland is 13-3 this season.

Abby Scharlow scored 21 and Tiffany Mor added 15 for No. 10 seed UW-Green Bay (27-4), which fell to 1-8 in NCAA Tournament play. The Horizon League champions weren't happy about playing in the home arena of an unranked team, but they handled the task well until falling apart at the end

The Phoenix made only six field goals in the final 11:56, half of them in the final 80 seconds.

The second half featured 10 lead changes before Langhorne made two free throws, Kalika France hit a jumper and Doron sank a 3-pointer in a 7-2 surge that put the Terps up 49-45 with 8:37 remaining.

Both teams then went cold until Doron made a steal and went the other way before hitting a 14-footer. After a miss by UW-Green Bay, Doron made a baseline jumper and Langhorne added a three-point play to put the Terps up by 11.

The Phoenix never got closer than six after that.

Maryland got four points apiece from Doron and Langhorne in an 11-2 run at the outset. It was 23-17 before the Terps went cold, missing their final eight shots before halftime while the Phoenix used a 7-1 spree to pull even at the break.

UW-Green Bay took its first lead when Scharlow opened the second half with a jumper, and the Phoenix made their next three field-goal tries to go up 34-31. Maryland went back on top, but a three-point play by Scharlow put UW-Green Bay ahead 39-36 with 14:17 to go.

NCAA TOURNAMENT SECOND ROUND

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Ohio State's balanced attack and aggressive defensive was more than enough to overcome Maryland's home court advantage in the second round of the NCAA tournament.

Brandie Hoskins scored 22 points, three other Buckeyes reached double figures, and Ohio State advanced to the round of 16 for the first time since 1993 with a 75-65 victory Tuesday night.

Jessica Davenport had 15 points and nine rebounds, Caity Matter scored 16 points and Stephanie Blanton added 12 for the second-seeded Buckeyes, who limited the Terrapins to 31 points after halftime.

Ohio State (30-4) will face third-seeded Rutgers on Sunday in the Philadelphia Regional semifinals. Rutgers beat Temple 61-54 on Tuesday night in Storrs, Conn.

Crystal Langhorne had 22 points and 16 rebounds for the seventh-seeded Terrapins (22-10), who were trying to win their first second-round NCAA tournament game since 1992. It was Langhorne's 18th double-double of the season, tying the school record set by Vicky Bullett in 1987-88.

Ahead 58-53, the Buckeyes used a 9-3 spurt to go up 67-56 with just over 3 minutes left. Matter scored seven points in the run, capping it with a 3-pointer that all but assured victory.

Maryland made only four baskets in the final 9:42, two of them in the final 40 seconds. Leading scorer Shay Doron finished with only nine points on 3-for-15 shooting.

The Terrapins were 13-3 at the Comcast Center, but playing at home and in front of a partisan crowd wasn't enough to overcome Ohio State's speed and tenacious defense.

The second half featured eight lead changes before Matter hit a 3-pointer, Hoskins scored on a drive and Blanton sank a shot from beyond the arc to put the Buckeyes up 53-46 with 14:10 left.

At that point, Ohio State was 7-for-8 from the field in the second half. The Buckeyes missed their next four shots, and after Maryland closed to 53-50, Ashley Allen made a 3-pointer and Hoskins added a layup to give OSU an eight-point cushion.

Davenport then went to the bench with three fouls, and the 6-3 Langhorne went to work. She scored inside, grabbed a rebound on the other end and made a free throw to bring the Terrapins to 58-53.

They would get no closer.

The Buckeyes took a 35-34 halftime lead on a 3-pointer by Allen, her only points of the half. Davenport and Langhorne dueled for all 20 minutes. Davenport had 10 points and Langhorne had 10 points and nine rebounds

Ohio State improved to 28-1 when leading at the half

ALL-TIME COACHING HISTORY

DOTTIE MCKNIGHT

44-17, .721

4 YEARS (1971-75)

The first coach in the varsity era of women's basketball at the University of Maryland, McKnight directed a fledgling program into immediate success. In her four seasons at the Maryland helm, she never had a losing season. Her program was certainly not as established as it would become after her departure, but McKnight, in fact, boasts a better winning percentage than her successor, Chris Weller. McKnight laid claim to Maryland's first state championship in 1973, and won a second in 1975 with Weller as her assistant.

CHRIS WELLER

27 YEARS (1975-2002)

Chris Weller dominates Maryland women's basketball history. She guided her alma mater to a national championship game and to three Final Fours in total. Her Maryland teams enjoyed national rankings in 18 seasons and she engineered an unprecedented eight Atlantic Coast Conference championships. In 1995, she became just the fifth coach in women's college history to earn at least 400 victories at the same school. Three years earlier, her Terps were No. 1-ranked for nearly a month and drew to College Park a sellout crowd that still is the largest in history to watch an ACC women's basketball game. She was been a pioneer, architect and engineer to one of the most successful programs in the nation.

BRENDA FRESE

3 YEARS (2002-PRESENT)

The 2002 AP Coach of the Year at Minnesota, Brenda Frese became only the third head coach in Maryland history on April 2, 2002. Frese came to College Park with a mission to rebuild and return Maryland to national prominence, and in just three short years, she is well on her way to accomplishing that mission. She led the team to an 18-13 record and a NCAA Tournament second round appearance in her second year, recording the team's first tournament win in 12 years. The Terps tied for second in the ACC in 2003-04, their best showing since 1996-97. In 2004-05, Maryland made its first appearance in the national polls since 2001-02, while achieving a No. 15 ranking, its highest rating since 1992-93, and also made its second-straight NCAA second round appearance. Frese's squad also drew an ACC women's basketball record 17, 243 fans to its game vs. Duke on Feb. 13, 2005

GAME-BY-GAME RESULTS

Game-by-game results for every Maryland women's basketball season since 1971-72. Atlantic Coast Conference play began in 1977-78. Overall records are followed by home, road and neutral court records in parentheses. Home games were played at Preinkert Field House in the 1971-72 and 1972-73 seasons. Home games were played at Cole Field House from the 1973-74 season through 2001-02, except where indicated. In 2002-03, Maryland began play in Comcast Center. RC indicates games at Ritchie Coliseum; •-Indicates ACC games.

GREAT TEAMS & MOMENTS

Great Teams and Great Moments define Maryland women's basketball since it earned varsity distinction in the 1970s, rising quickly among the nation's elite and maintaining excellence and winning seasons nearly 30 years later. Greatness has been synonymous with Terrapin women's hoops. And synonymous with the Terrapins was been Chris Weller who began her Terrapin legacy as first a player in the mid-1960s, only to return later as an assistant, and eventually, head coach until her retirement in 2002.

The Weller Era was marked by NCAA Tournaments, collegiate milestones and perennial national rankings. Here is a chronological look at highlights – great moments – in Terrapin history.

TERRAPIN TRADITION

- FINAL FOUR APPEARANCES: 3
- NATIONAL TOURNAMENT APPEARANCES: 19
- ACC CHAMPIONSHIPS: 8
- 20-WIN SEASONS: 12
- OLYMPIANS: 5
- ALL-AMERICANS: 4
- ALL-ACC: 24
- RHODES SCHOLAR: 1

1972-73
STATE CHAMPIONS

Maryland wins its first state championship with a 46-43 victory over Morgan State.

1974-75
STATE CHAMPIONS
AIAW REGIONAL

The Terps wind their way to the second of three state titles, finishing 11-6 in the final season under Dottie McKnight. Perhaps most notable was the first-ever women's basketball game ever to be televised on Jan. 26 from Cole Field House. Maryland lost to defending national champion Immaculata.

The first-ever televised women's basketball game.

EAIAW REGIONAL

The 1975-76 season is best known as the beginning of the "Chris Weller Era." Maryland successfully defends its state championship and finishes fourth in the EAIAW Regionals in Pittsburgh, Pa. The Terps go 20-4 in Weller's first season with an 18-2 regular season marred only by a pair of one-point losses.

EAIAW REGIONAL

Maryland receives its first national ranking on Nov. 25 with a No. 15 billing by the Associated Press. The Terps would finish in the No. 16 spot at season's end, but not after a 17-6 final record and fourth-place finish in the EAIAW Regionals. Maryland downs Virginia 79-67 on Feb. 11 to mark the beginning of the Terrapins' second-longest series in history. Jane Zivalich becomes the first Terp chosen for the U.S. Select Team.

1977-78
ACC CHAMPIONS
AIAW FINALS

The Terps register their best season to date, with numerous "firsts." Maryland captures the first of its now unprecedented eight ACC championships, earns a second-place finish in the EAIAW Tournament and finishes sixth in the final AP poll. The Terps beat UCLA and Olympian Ann Myers, 92-88 on Jan. 4 in a preview to the eventual national title bout. In the midst of an 11-game win streak to open the season and a 117-47 win over Duke, Maryland grabs a still-standing record 29 steals on Jan. 14. Maryland bests No. 2 NC State 89-82 on Feb. 11 to win the ACC title, and Tara Heiss establishes what is still the school mark for single game assists with 17 against Rutgers on Feb. 28. Weller's upset magic continues with a win over No. 1 ranked Tennessee on March 17 and a win over Southern Connecticut sends the Terps to the first-ever AIAW Final Four. Maryland downs Wayland Baptist on March 23 to win its first game in Final Four history. On March 25 a record crowd of 9,351 and national television audience on NBC Sports World watch host UCLA defeat the Terps 90-74 at Pauley Pavilion for the national championship.

ACC CHAMPIONS
AIAW QUARTERFINALS

The Terps capture their second straight ACC title and reach the AIAW National Tournament for the second straight season. Maryland achieves its highest national ranking on Nov. 25 with a spot in the No. 2 position. The Terps down NC State in Raleigh on Feb. 10 to claim their second ACC banner. Maryland finishes 22-7 and ends the campaign with a No. 8 national ranking.

1979-80
AIAW QUARTERFINALS

Kris Kirchner logs her name in the Terp record book with a modest 15-point effort against Seton Hall on Feb. 29. Its significance is her contribution to 1,351 points to establish a Maryland career record. Maryland captures its first EAIAW Regional Tournament title with a 79-70 win over Rutgers on March 8. Jane Zivalich is named a Rhodes Scholar finalist and the Terps advance to the AIAW quarterfinals. Maryland finishes with a No. 6 national ranking and a 21-9 record for its third straight 20-win season. Tara Heiss is named to the 1980 U.S. Olympic squad.

ACC CHAMPIONS
AIAW QUARTERFINALS

Maryland continues its prominence in the EAIAW Regional, advancing to the title game for the fourth straight season. A 64-63 win over emerging rival NC State on Feb. 14 helps the Terps capture the ACC crown for the third time in its first four years of existence, and finish with a No. 8 ranking in the Associated Press poll. A trip to the national tournament in Knoxville, Tenn., results in a win over Kentucky and a loss to the homestanding Volunteers.

1981-82
ACC CHAMPIONS
NCAA FINAL FOUR

"Four" becomes a magical number to Chris Weller and her crew as the Terps win 25 times to advance to their second Final Four – this time it is the first NCAA Final Four just four years after appearing in the national title game in the first-ever AIAW Final Four. The Terps capture their fourth ACC title with a 93-81 win over Clemson on Feb. 28 The Terps earn the No. 2 seed in the NCAA West Regional and defeat Stanford 82-48 in Cole Field House to mark the campus' first NCAA Tournament game on March 14. The Terps trek west for a win over Missouri on March 19, and Drake two days later to earn a trip to their second Final Four. Cheyney State upends Maryland 76-66 to end the season on March 26, but not without a No. 3 billing in the final AP poll marking the highest finish in Maryland history.

ACC CHAMPIONS
NCAA SWEET SIXTEEN

Maryland tops Rutgers 83-66 on Jan. 26 to run its school record win streak to 16 games to open the season. NC State knocks the Terps from the ranks of unbeaten on Jan. 29, though only five weeks later the Terrapins earn revenge by downing the Wolfpack 84-81 for their fifth ACC crown on March 6. Maryland earns the No. 3 seed in the East Region and defeats Central Michigan on March 19 in an opening-round game. Maryland eventually falls to Old Dominion in the regional semifinal and ends the year with a No. 7 national ranking. The Terps conclude the season as the NCAA leaders in field goal percentage statistics, behind the strength of Kodak All-American Jasmina Perazic – Maryland's first to be so honored.

1983-84
NCAA FIRST ROUND

The Terps fail to win 20 games for the first time in three seasons, but record at least 19 for the seventh straight year. Maryland is ranked 17th in the final AP poll and earns a No. 6 seed in the NCAA East Region.

1984-85

Maryland enters the 1984-85 season having been ranked in the AP Top 20 for 128 consecutive weeks — the most by any team in the nation. Weller spends her summer months as an assistant coach for the U.S. National Jones Cup team.

1985-86
ACC CHAMPIONS
NCAA FIRST ROUND

Success and championships return after just a one-year hiatus. The Terps enter the ACC Tournament as an underdog, yet win their sixth title, defeating NC State, Virginia and North Carolina. Deanna Tate is named MVP of the tournament after downing the Tar Heels 90-74 on March 3. Maryland accepts a No. 6 seed in the NCAA Mideast Region, and suffers an opening round loss to Ohio State.

1986-87

The Terps exit the ACC Tournament in a semifinal loss to Virginia. It is only the second season in the last 10 that Maryland has failed to reach a national tournament.

1987-88
ACC CHAMPIONS
NCAA ELITE EIGHT

And back come the Terps again. Not to be denied an ACC title for more than a season at a time, Maryland goes 26-6 overall and never loses in 13 home contests. The Terps take a four-game win streak into the ACC Tournament where they down Georgia Tech, Wake Forest and Virginia, and claim a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Mideast Region. Deanna Tate wins her second straight tourney MVP award as the Terrapins hold off the Cavaliers, 76-70 on March 7 for their seventh conference crown. They run their streak to nine games with an 81-66 victory over Ohio State in the regional semifinal on March 24. The Terps fall to Auburn in a bid for a third Final Four, but finish 26-6 and return to national prominence.

Maryland finishes eighth in the final poll released by USA Today, and ninth by AP. Junior Vicky Bullett breaks Maryland's all-time scoring and rebounding marks with still a year to play, and stars for the U.S. Olympic team during August 1988. She wins a gold medal in the Summer Games while averaging 4.4 points and 3.0 rebounds in five games.

ACC CHAMPIONS
NCAA FINAL FOUR

Maryland's most successful season? Perhaps. Vicky Bullett and Deanna Tate both earn Kodak All-America honors as the Terps embark on an all-time best 29-3 record. Included in the mark was another perfect home record, 12-0, which ran Maryland's Cole Field House win streak to 27. On March 5, Maryland defeats Virginia 89-66 to win its 17th consecutive game, a new school record. The Terps won four more games to establish the existing school mark of 21 straight victories. The 18th win of the streak, March 6 against NC State, secures an eighth ACC title. Bullett is named the league's player of the year as Maryland enters the NCAA West Region as the No. 1 seed. Maryland notches win 19 of the streak on March 18 against Bowling Green with a 73-68 opening round win at Cole Field House. The streak grows to 21 with a 79-71 win over Texas on its home floor on March 25, earning the Terps a trip to their third Final Four. On ESPN in a national semifinal on March 31, Maryland watches its season and its streak wind to a close with a 77-65 loss to Tennessee.

NCAA SWEET SIXTEEN

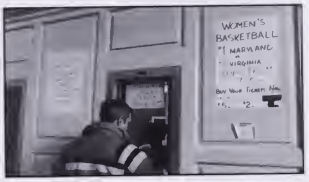
Maryland reaches its third straight NCAA Tournament with a 19-11 record. Maryland wins its first home game against George Mason on Nov. 29 to run its record home court win streak to 28 games before falling on Dec. 6 to defending national champ Tennessee. Dafne Lee helps the Terps to an 85-84 overtime win over Wake Forest to begin a four-game win streak heading into the ACC Tournament. In the process, she scores 39 points against the Deamon Deacons to tie the school record. On Feb. 16, Maryland earns a No. 6 seed in the NCAA East Region and downs Appalachian State 100-71 for its final win on March 14 at Cole Field House.

1990-91
NCAA FIRST ROUND

Maryland wins five straight games at mid-season to help in building a 17-13 mark and earn a No. 6 seed in the NCAA Mideast Region. Maryland advances to the ACC semifinals with a 91-73 win over Georgia Tech.

1991-92
NCAA ELITE EIGHT

One of the Terps' most exciting seasons saw Maryland finish 25-6 in 1991-92, including the first No. 1 ranking in school history and a Cole Field House sellout crowd of 14,500 to watch No. 1 Maryland and No. 2 Virginia. Prior to that historic, No. 3 Maryland downs top-ranked Virginia 67-65 in Charlottesville on Jan. 15 to mark the second time in history that the Terps had beaten a No. 1 team. The win catapults the Terps to their first-ever No. 1 ranking on Jan. 21, a post they would hold for four weeks. Maryland wins its first five games to defend the ranking and runs its win streak to 11 games overall to set up a Virginia rematch on Feb. 11 at Cole Field House. The Cole sellout still is the largest ACC crowd in history and one of the largest in collegiate women's history. Maryland exits the ACC Tournament after an opening round upset by Georgia Tech, and bows to Western Kentucky in the Mideast Regional finals. The Terps end the season ranked eighth in both national polls, and Chris Weller is a consensus pick as national coach of the year.



The No. 1-ranked Terps hosted No. 2 Virginia before a sellout crowd in 1992.

NCAA FIRST ROUND

Jessie Hicks scores 20 points to lead the Terrapins past No. 1 Tennessee, Dec. 30 at Cole Field House. It is Maryland's third win ever against a top-ranked foe, and coupled with a Jan. 2 victory over No. 10 Purdue, propels the Terps to a No. 3 ranking of its own. Maryland falls to Virginia, 106-103, in a memorable triple-overtime championship game of the ACC Tournament on March 8, but earns a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Mideast Region. The Terps are upset in an opening round game at Cole Field House, 86-82, by Southwest Missouri State. Maryland ends the campaign 22-8, and ranked 11th by the Associated Press and 18th by USA Today.

1993-94

The Terps finish 15-13 while ranking as high as No. 16 during the year. Maryland falls to Virginia in the ACC Tournament semifinals and gets its bubble burst when it fails to earn an NCAA bid for the first time in seven seasons.

1994-95

A promising rookie class of recruits is rated as high as fourth-best in the country, though Maryland finishes 11-18 on the season. Maryland defeats NC State 83-80 at Cole Field House for Chris Weller's 400th career victory on Jan. 28.

1995-96

Maryland upends No. 14 Duke at Cole Field House on Feb. 5, and No. 18 Clemson at Cole a week later on Feb. 10. The Terps finish 13-14, but again advance to the ACC semifinals.

1996-97

In her 22nd season as coach, Chris Weller readies the troops for another run at the NCAA Tournament. Maryland wins a pair of early-season tournaments and leads the nation in scoring defense through much of January. The Terps defeat No. 14 Duke 68-64 on Jan. 12, and drop No. 15 NC State by a 54-51 count on Jan. 18. The Terps defeat No. 21 Clemson on the road on Feb. 22 to earn a No. 3 seed in the ACC Tournament, but fall in a first-round game to Duke, 60-52 in overtime. The Terrapins gain an at-large NCAA bid in the Midwest Region.

NCAA FIRST ROUND

Facing a schedule ranked the third-strongest in the nation, Maryland leads the ACC in scoring defense and ranked 29th nationally. Maryland wins seven straight early games. Highlights include a pair of wins over Top 20 foes: No. 7 North Carolina on Jan. 18 and later No. 9 NC State in the ACC Tournament quarterfinals. Tiffany Brown nets a then-school record seven 3-pointers in the win over North Carolina before a national TV audience on ESPN2.

1998-99

A young Terrapin squad overcomes the absence of key seniors to finish seventh in the ACC and capture its third consecutive title in the Terrapin Classic on Dec. 29.

1999-2000

Maryland returns to the national scene as the Terps claim a berth in the 2000 Women's National Invitational Tournament. The Terps advanced all the way to the tournament's quarterfinals before falling to finalist Florida. During the regular season, the Terps recorded a pair of upset victories over ranked teams, defeating No. 12 Duke on Feb. 3 and No. 16 Virginia on Feb. 24. The win over Duke ended the Blue Devils' 20-game home ACC win streak. Tiffany Brown became Maryland's most prolific 3-point shooter, setting the career records for treys made and attempted. She also set the single-game mark with eight at Clemson on Jan. 6. Marché Strickland made five consecutive 3-pointers in a 65-second span against Georgia Tech on Jan. 23. Because of her accomplishment, Strickland garned national media recognition.

NCAA FIRST ROUND

The 2000-01 season marks the program's 17th national tournament appearance. The Terps tops then-No. 18 Clemson 85-73 in overtime in Cole Field House and sweeps the season series at Clemson when they are ranked 17th with a 68-62 victory. No. 22 NC State falls to the Terps 57-56 on its home court, and then suffers the 75-54 loss at Cole Field House when they are No. 17. On the doorstep of a Top 25 ranking all season, Maryland loses to Colorado State in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament after receiving its first NCAA bid since 1997. Terp juniors Deedee Warley and Marché Strickland score their 1,000th point, Warley in the upset at Clemson and Strickland at Duke on Feb. 15.

2001-02

A distinctive era comes to a close in the 2001-02 season, as 27-year head coach Chris Weller (499-286, .636) says goodbye to Maryland and Cole Field House closes its doors as the home of Terrapin women's basketball. On Feb. 21, with a 66-54 loss to NC State, the Terrapins celebrate their 28 years of memorable moments and championship history in Cole Field House. Weller officially announces her retirement from Maryland on March 5 after celebrating the ACC Tournament's 25th anniversary and the Terps' league-leading eight titles.

2002-03

A new era begins as Maryland women's basketball moves to its new home at Comcast Center with a new mentor at the helm in Brenda Frese. The Terps will forever hold the distinction of playing the first-ever basketball game, men's or women's, at the new facility hosting Loyola on Nov. 22, a game which Maryland won, 80-72. Renneika Razor scores the first basket en route to the Terps victory. Maryland breaks 100 points for the first time since 1993, when they downed UMES, 102-31, on Dec. 1. In Maryland's 69-58 loss at Virginia on Jan. 19, Razor becomes the 20th Terp in school history to break the 1,000-point barrier, ending her career ranked 16th all-time amassing 1,163 points. A crowd of 5,078 are in attendance for Maryland's thrilling 74-72 win over NC State on Feb. 1. It was the largest crowd since 1996 when No. 9 Virginia came to town. Razor ends her career with second team All-ACC honors, the highest honor given to a Terp since 1998.

2003-04

NCAA SECOND ROUND

In what was supposed to be another rebuilding year, the Terps win the most games since the 1996-97 campaign and finish in a tie for third place in the ACC, the best showing since that same year. Maryland equals its conference win total from the previous two years, combined, earning an NCAA Tournament berth for the first time in three years. Led by a couple of high school All-Americans, Shay Doron opens the season making an NCAA record-tying 23 free throws vs. Coppin State on Nov. 21.She goes on to break the school's single-season mark. A Comcast Center record 13,446 come out for the home regular-season finale vs. No. 4 Duke on Feb. 22 which is televised on ESPN2. The record is also the second-largest crowd for a women's basketball game in ACC history. After a 62-47 win over Florida State on March 6, the Terps advance to the semifinals of the ACC Tournament to face the Blue Devils and fall short of the upset, 70-63, on March 7. The Terps are selected the 12th seed in the West Region and go on to win their first NCAA tourney game in 12 years when they upset Miami (Fla.), 86-85, on March 21. Three Terps earn ACC postseason honors. Doron leads the way with third team nods becoming the first rookie in school history to earn All-ACC honors. Kalika France also becomes the first freshman Terp to be named Honorable Mention All-ACC while Delvona Oliver earns the recognition for the first time in her career. Doron (first team) and Oliver (second team) are also selected to the ACC All-Tournament team. By year's end, Doron and France lead the team in scoring, the first time a pair of Terp rookies has done so.

NCAA SECOND ROUND

The Terps earn a No. 23 preseason ranking in both the Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today Coaches polls. Boasting the fourth-best recruiting class in the nation, the Terps win the most games since 1992-93, while making its second-straight trip to the ACC semifinals and the second round of the NCAA Tournament. After opening the season at 5-1, the Terps crack the AP's top 20 on Dec. 6, their first top-20 ranking in 11 years. On Jan. 9, Maryland tops No. 5/4 North Carolina, 92-77, its first victory over a top-five team since 1992. The Terps jump to No. 15 in the AP poll after the victory. Shay Doron scores a school-record tying 39 points on Jan. 16 at Florida State, but the Terps fall in overtime, 95-91. Jan. 25 marks the 30th anniversary of the first-ever nationally televised women's basketball game which featured the Terps and Immaculata. On Feb. 3 head coach Brenda Frese records her 100th-career victory with an 84-67 win over Georgia Tech. Maryland sets a Comcast Center attendance record for the second-consecutive year on Feb. 12, as 17,243 fans tum out for the Terps' clash vs. Duke, also setting the all-time ACC women's basketball single-game attendance mark. Crystal Langhorne scores 29 points and grabs 22 rebounds at Miami on Feb. 17, the first 20-rebound game in school history since 1980. Langhorne then sets a new freshman-class school record, netting 33 points in the regular-season finale on Feb. 28. The Terps upset No. 19 NC State on March 5 to advance to the semifinals of the ACC Tournament for the second year in a row. Comcast Center plays host to the NCAA Tournament for the first time, as seven teams travel to College Park for the first and second rounds. Frese earns her 50th win at Maryland as the Terps advance to the second round for the second-straight year with a win over UW-Green Bay on March 20. Crystal Langhorne was named ACC Rookie of the Year and second team All-ACC, the highest-honored freshman in school history. Shay Doron was selected first team All-ACC, Kodak/WBCA Regional All-American and Kodak/WBCA Honorable Mention All-American. At year's end, Langhorne set the freshman-class scoring and rebounding records, while Doron set the sophomore class mark for points. The Terps ended the year ranked 24th in the nation, the first time Maryland has been ranked in the final poll in 12 years.

COLE FIELD HOUSE

HOME OF MARYLAND WOMEN'S BASKETBALL (1975-2002)

One of college basketball's finest venues, Cole Field House retired as the home of the Maryland Terrapin basketball teams in 2002.

When college basketball was achieving its most explosive growth - from the late 1950's to the late 1970's – there was one college gymnasium on the East Coast that sat as many as 12,000 fans. Cole Field House epitomized the new big time, main event status of college hoops, the sport of network TV and emerging legends. Despite facing cosmetic renewal, Cole's chansma was never tampered with. There was not a bad seat on December 2, 1955, when it was dedicated in the men's game against Virginia, and was equalling as thunderous when it closed its doors as the men's team defeated Virginia on March 3, 2002. Cole was also the place where a capacity crowd witness the No. 1 Maryland women's basketball team host No. 2 Virginia on Feb. 12, 1992, then an ACC record. That attendance stood for 12 years until the Terps broke that record in 2005 at Comcast Center. Cole Field House will always be home to countless memories, buzzer beaters and a thousand slam dunks.

Many great women's basketball teams and great players have played at Cole Field House. It ranks among the top 50 all-time Best Women's Basketball Home Courts, as the Terps compiled a 288-95 mark (75.2 percent) from 1973-2002, which ranks among the top 50 overall.

Cole was dedicated as the Student Activities Center, a $3.3 million project that was erected under the tutelage of Board of Regents Chair, Judge William P. Cole, Jr., and President Wilson Elkins. A year after the dedication, the building was named in honor of Cole, who served the Board of Regents for 25 years.

Although Cole has remained the same basketball hall it was built to be, there were refinements. Additions were made such as an increase in seating capacity to 14,500, scoreboards that not only told the fan what the score was, but also how loud they were cheering, and a new floor design.

As championships were awarded over the years, Cole got some of the very best. The 1966 and 1970 men's basketball Final Four were held there. In 1990, the first and second rounds of the eastern regionals were in Cole Field House. The NCAA wrestling championships were held at Cole in 1960, 1972, 1978, 1987, and 1990, and the NCAA women's volleyball championship took place there in 1990. Cole Field House also served as the home to most of the athletic department offices.

No. 1 ranked Maryland drew an ACC record 14,500 to its game against No. 2 Virginia on Feb. 12, 1992.

COMCAST CENTER

Maryland's new home for Terrapin Athletics was completed in the fall of 2002, and has already provided two seasons of toppled attendance records and memories on the hardwood. Comcast Center provides a seating capacity of 17,950 fans for basketball, and serves as a campus site for university special events and select community events.

Comcast Center houses the university's athletics administration offices and includes a 7,000-square-foot Academic Support Center, providing an enhanced study atmosphere for the school's approximate 700 student-athletes on 27 teams. An additional 1,500-seat gymnasium serves as home to the Terps' volleyball, gymnastics and wrestling teams, and Nextel Heritage Hall multi-purpose room is equipped to host banquets, press conferences, meetings and serve as a pre-game restaurant suite overlooking the competition arena.

Comcast Center is an excellent place for alumni and fans to enjoy their favorite sports and share in their common Terrapin spirit. Visitors can learn about the men and women who have forged the Maryland Athletics program among the nation's elite as they stroll through the Terrapin Walk of Fame and History. The Terrapin Team Store, located just off the soaring three-level atrium lobby, allows visitors to outfit their pride. Maryland has once again reclaimed the status of having the best student activities center and basketball arena in the country.

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND
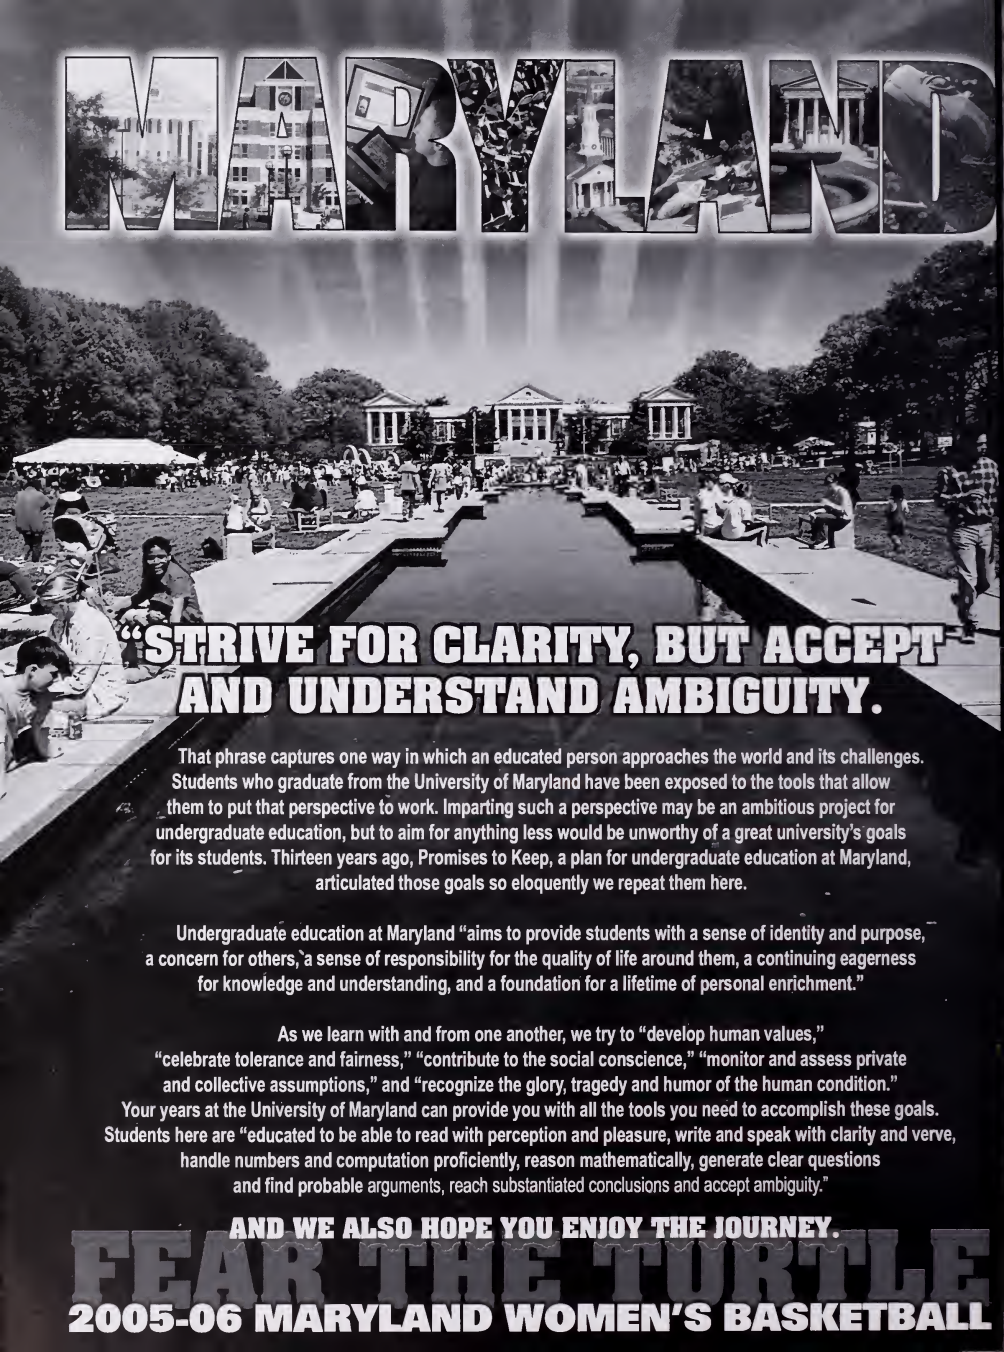
ADMINISTRATION



"STRIVE FOR CLARITY, BUT ACCEPT AND UNDERSTAND AMBIGUITY.

That phrase captures one way in which an educated person approaches the world and its challenges. Students who graduate from the University of Maryland have been exposed to the tools that allow them to put that perspective to work. Imparting such a perspective may be an ambitious project for undergraduate education, but to aim for anything less would be unworthy of a great university's goals for its students. Thirteen years ago, Promises to Keep, a plan for undergraduate education at Maryland, articulated those goals so eloquently we repeat them here.

Undergraduate education at Maryland "aims to provide students with a sense of identity and purpose, a concern for others, a sense of responsibility for the quality of life around them, a continuing eagerness for knowledge and understanding, and a foundation for a lifetime of personal enrichment."

As we learn with and from one another, we try to "develop human values," "celebrate tolerance and fairness," "contribute to the social conscience," "monitor and assess private and collective assumptions," and "recognize the glory, tragedy and humor of the human condition." Your years at the University of Maryland can provide you with all the tools you need to accomplish these goals. Students here are "educated to be able to read with perception and pleasure, write and speak with clarity and verve, handle numbers and computation proficiently, reason mathematically, generate clear questions and find probable arguments, reach substantiated conclusions and accept ambiguity."

AND WE ALSO HOPE YOU ENJOY THE JOURNEY.

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

THE CAMPUS

By virtually every measure of quality, the University of Maryland has gained national recognition as one of the fastest-rising comprehensive research institutions in the country. The momentum of recent years has poised the university to move it into the top ranks of higher education and take leadership in shaping the research university of the 21st century.

The university has enjoyed a decade of momentum in all of the areas that affect quality. The average high school GPA of entering students has zoomed from 3.01 to nearly 3.90, and the average SATs are now more than 1270. The student body is a model of diversity, with minorities making up more than 32 percent of all students, and at least one graduate and undergraduate student from every state in the nation.

The university has 79 graduate and undergraduate programs ranked in the Top 25 by U.S. News and World Report, up from just one program in 1991.

Sponsored research and outreach has nearly tripled in the same 10-year period, exceeding $350 million last year. Private giving also has increased, and the university last year concluded its first campaign by topping its $350 million goal by more than $100 million. Alumni Association membership has been growing at an average rate of 10 percent a year since 1992.

One of the largest research universities in the United States, Fall 2004 enrollment was 25,140 undergraduate and 9,793 graduate students. There are 94 undergraduate programs, 89 master's programs, 70 doctoral programs and one first professional degree program. More than 100 centers and institutes are engaged in research and outreach.

Faculty at the University of Maryland, in all fields of knowledge, are engaged at the highest levels of national and international concern. The university's location near the center of federal policy-making and international political and economic activity enables it to play an active role in research and analysis of public policy.

Maryland is one of 30 public universities in the prestigious 63-member Association of American Universities and the only public institution in the Maryland-D.C. area with membership in the nation's most distinguished honor society, Phi Beta Kappa.

DID YOU KNOW?

In 1991, Maryland had one program listed among Top 25 entrants in the U.S. News & World Report Rankings. Maryland now has 79 programs ranked among the nation's elite, and the university is ranked 18th nationally among public universities.

A report card published in Technology Review rated the top U.S. universities in their quest for intellectual property, commercial partners and profits. Johns Hopkins University and the University of Maryland (28th) were the Mid-Atlantic (Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, District of Columbia) schools to make the "campus patenting" top 50 list.

Black Issues In Higher Education ranked the university fourth nationally in bachelor's degrees earned by African-American students at traditionally white schools. Maryland ranks first in African-American undergraduate degrees in social sciences and history.

The Wall Street Journal ranked the Robert H. Smith School of Business No. 16 among the world's business schools. Maryland is the top-ranked school in the Mid-Atlantic region (Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia). The Financial Times of London ranked the Robert H. Smith School of Business No. 8 in information technology, No. 6 in faculty research and No. 7 in entrepreneurship.

In undergraduate program rankings released by U.S. News & World Report the A. James Clark School of Engineering (No. 17) and the College of Education (No. 22) were ranked among the top 25.

LIBRARIES

Seven libraries make up the University of Maryland library system: McKeldin (main) Library, Architecture Library, Art Library, Engineering and Physical Sciences Library, Hornbake Library, Performing Arts Library and White Memorial (Chemistry) Library.

These libraries constitute the largest university research library institution in the Washington metropolitan area, providing vital resources to researchers, visiting scholars, and businesses throughout the region. The libraries' holdings include more than 2.5 million volumes, 24,000 subscriptions to periodicals and nearly 5 million items available in microfilm format.

RESEARCH

Opportunities for conducting research abound at the University of Maryland, College Park, and in the surrounding area, both for faculty to advance their own expertise and bring their insights into the classroom, and for students to begin their exploration of their unique interests with practical experience. On campus, special facilities and a number of organized research centers, bureaus and institutes promote the acquisition and analysis of new knowledge in the arts, sciences and applied fields.

The university's enviable location — just nine miles from downtown Washington, D.C., and approximately 30 miles from both Baltimore and Annapolis — enhances the research of its faculty and students by providing access to some of the finest libraries and research centers in the country.

SERVICE

Programs of public service are central to the overall mission of the university. The philosophy is reflected in the wide array of programs and initiatives that benefit the state's business, agriculture and education communities.

With more than 90 high-technology firms in the three-county area of Montgomery, Prince George's and Frederick counties, the university has found abundant opportunity to extend its business and technology outreach programs to the region. Many of these programs are part of the Engineering Research Center, which operates the Technology Advancement Program and the Maryland Industrial Partnerships, programs designed to provide Maryland entrepreneurs and small businesses with research facilities, technical assistance, administrative support and access to technology that will advance their economic base.

The Institute for Systems Research has formed partnerships with major corporations, including Lockheed Martin, Westinghouse, BF Goodrich, Hughes Aircraft and Dupont to apply advanced systems research to solving industry problems in the fields of communications, manufacturing, controls and robotics.

The university last year opened the Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center, with its six state-of-the art performance halls, which has quickly become a center of cultural programming in the Washington metropolitan area. The university also boasts four art galleries and a broad range of public art throughout the beautiful campus. Additionally intercollegiate, club and intramural sports provide students of all levels an opportunity to participate as spectators or athletes.

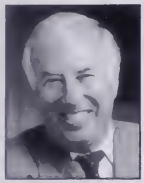
PRESIDENT C.D. MOTE JR.



UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT CALIFORNIA '59 SEVENTH YEAR

In September 1998, C. D. (Dan) Mote, Jr. began his tenure as President of the University of Maryland and Glenn L. Martin Institute Professor of Engineering. He was recruited to lead the University of Maryland to national eminence under a mandate by the state. Since assuming the presidency, he has encouraged an environment of excellence across the University and given new impetus to the momentum generated by a talented faculty and student body. Under his leadership, academic programs have flourished. In 2005, the University was ranked 18th among public research universities, up from 30th in 1998. President Mote has emphasized broad access to the university's model, enriched undergraduate curriculum programs and launched the Baltimore Incentive Awards Program to recruit and provide full support to high school students of outstanding potential who have overcome extraordinary adversity during their lives.

He has spurred the university to lead the state in the development of its high-tech economy, especially in the information and communication, bioscience and biotechnology, and nano-technology sectors. President Mote has greatly expanded the university's partnerships with corporate and federal laboratories and successfully negotiated to bring to the College Park area the first Science Research Park sponsored by the People's Republic of China. Under his leadership, the University has established a research park, The University of Maryland Enterprise Campus, M-Square, located on a 115-acre site adjacent to the University of Maryland/College Park Metro with 3 million square feet of development potential. Among its first tenants are the Center for Advanced Study of Language, a joint venture of the University and Department of Defense, and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's new World Weather and Climate Prediction Center.

During President Mote's second year in office, the University began the largest building boom in its history, with more than $100 million in new projects breaking ground that year. New facilities address every aspect of university life, from the arts to recreation to classrooms and laboratories, and, in creative partnership with the private sector, new residential facilities. Highlights of the construction activity include the stunning Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center; the Comcast Center, a state of the art sports complex; a high tech research greenhouse; and new classrooms for chemistry, computer science, business and engineering. President Mote also led the development of a new Facilities Master Plan for development in the next 20 years, which is noted for its emphasis on environmental stewardship.

Dr. Mote is a leader in the national dialogue on higher education and his analyses of shifting funding models have been featured in local and national media. He has testified on major educational issues before Congress, representing the University and higher education associations on the problem of visa barriers for international students and scholars and on deemed export control issues. He has been asked to serve on a high level National Academies Committee appointed at the request of the Senate Energy Subcommittee of the Senate Energy and Natural Resources Committee to identify challenges to United States leadership in key areas of science and technology and to be a member of the Leadership Council of the National Innovation Initiative, an activity of the Council on Competitiveness. He has served as vice chair of the Department of Defense Basic Research Committee, and is a member of the Council of the National Academy of Engineering. In 2004-2005, he served as President of the Atlantic Coast Conference. In its last ranking in 2002, "Washington Business Forward" magazine counted him among the top 20 most influential leaders in the region.

Prior to assuming the Presidency at Maryland, Dr. Mote served on the University of California, Berkeley faculty for 31 years. From 1991 to 1998, he was Vice Chancellor at Berkeley, held an endowed chair in Mechanical Systems and was President of the UC Berkeley Foundation. He led a comprehensive capital campaign for Berkeley that raised $1.4 B. He earlier served as chair of Berkeley's Department of Mechanical Engineering and led the department to its number one ranking in the National Research Council review of graduate program effectiveness.

Dr. Mote's research lies in dynamic systems and biomechanics. Internationally recognized for his research on the dynamics of gyroscopic systems and the biomechanics of snow skiing, he has produced more than 300 publications, holds patents in the U.S., Norway, Finland and Sweden, and has mentored 56 Ph.D. students. He received the B.S., M.S. and Ph.D. in mechanical engineering from the University of California, Berkeley. President Mote has received numerous awards and honors, including the Humboldt Prize awarded by the Federal Republic of Germany. He is a recipient of the Berkeley Citation, an award from the University of California-Berkeley similar to the honorary doctorate, and was named Distinguished Engineering Alumnus. He has received two honorary doctorates. He is a member of the U.S. National Academy of Engineering and serves on its Council, and is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences. He was elected to Honorary Membership in the ASME International, its most distinguished recognition, and is a Fellow of the International Academy of Wood Science, the Acoustical Society of America, and the American Association for the Advancement of Science. In Spring 2005, he was named recipient of the 2005 J. P. Den Hartog award by the ASME International Technical Committee on Vibration and Sound to honor lifelong contribution to the teaching and/or practice of vibration engineering.

He and his wife of over 40 years, Patricia Mote, have two married children, Melissa and Adam, and four grandchildren. Patsy Mote has continued her strong support of the arts and is spokesperson for the Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center and a member of Prince George's County Arts Commission.

DEBORAH A. YOW

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS • 12TH YEAR AT MARYLAND

Deborah A. Yow has just completed the 11th year of her outstanding tenure as director of athletics at the University of Maryland, a tenure that has seen unprecedented success and achievement in Maryland athletics. Each year has brought continued improvement and accomplishment in Terrapin athletics. In Yow's 11 years at Maryland, the Terrapins have won a remarkable nine NCAA national championships and graduated its student athletes at an enviable rate as Maryland athletics has soared to sustained new heights.

The comprehensive success of Terrapin athletics under Debbie Yow's leadership is a clear and compelling testimony of her values of excellence, teamwork and accountability.

Likewise, her prior election to the presidency of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics is an indication of the wide respect with which she is regarded among its 6,100 members representing 1,600 colleges and universities in the U.S. and Canada.

She was honored in December, 2004, by Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal as one of the 20 most influential people in intercollegiate athletics, and she has received the Carl Maddox Sport Management Award presented by the United States Sports Academy for excellence in athletics administration.

Yow was selected to serve on the U.S. Department of Education's Commission on Opportunities in Athletics to review the status of Federal Title IX regulations. She recently served as the chair of the Atlantic Coast Conference Committee on Television. The committee is charged with overseeing the league's TV contracts and dealing with issues related to television. Yow led the committee during the successful renegotiation of comprehensive, multi-year ACC football and basketball contracts with ABC, ESPN, ESPN2 and syndication entities.

Additionally, she has represented intercollegiate athletics with presentations in a number of prominent settings such as the Harvard University School of Law conference on "Shaping the Future of Collegiate Athletics" and the Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal "National Forum on the Direction of Intercollegiate Athletics." She was also recently inducted into the State of Maryland Women's Hall of Fame.

Yow, who has served on the NCAA Management Council and the NCAA Division I Budget Committee, is a strong and steady voice on behalf of intercollegiate athletics in America.

Since taking over as AD at Maryland in 1994, she and her staff have:

- Transformed Terrapin athletics into a responsive, goal-oriented organization.
- Balanced all 11 of the department's annual budgets (the first balanced budgets in the 10 years prior to her arrival). The budget has now reached $53 million annually and the multi-million dollar accumulated operating debt which her administration inherited has been eradicated.
- Greatly enhanced the academic support services provided for student-athletes, with an enviable exhausted eligibility graduation rate of approximately 85 percent for student athletes at Maryland.
- Led the Terrapins to a national all-sports ranking in the upper seven percent of all NCAA Division I institutions.
- Significantly expanded marketing and fund-raising efforts on behalf of Terrapin athletics. As a result, private gifts to athletics have increased over 350% and corporate sponsorship revenues have increased by over 300 percent during her tenure at Maryland.
- Continued to dramatically improve venues and facilities for the department's 27 teams. The Comcast Center for men's and women's basketball and other sports that use the facility is a prime example of the dramatic upgrade of athletic facilities.
- Implemented a strategic management model.
- Developed a comprehensive Internet strategy with management, marketing and fund-raising applications.
- Significantly improved customer care in every area of Maryland athletics.

The most recent achievements of Maryland athletics are exceptional:

- Maryland was selected by U.S. News & World Report as one of the Top 20 athletic programs in the nation (for overall quality and competitive excellence).
- In men's basketball, the Terps won the Atlantic Coast Conference title over Duke in the championship game in 2004 and won the NCAA National Championship in 2002. Under Coach Gary Williams, the men's basketball team has appeared in 11 of the last 12 NCAA Tournaments, one of only six schools to do so.
- Women's basketball also won its way to the NCAA Tournament in 2004 and 2005, advancing to the second round.
- In football, the Terps won the 2001 Atlantic Coast Conference championship and played in the 2002 Orange Bowl, followed that with an 11-win season and a 30-3 victory over the University of Tennessee in the Peach Bowl, again followed by a 10-win season and a 41-7 win over West Virginia in the Gator Bowl on New Year's Day 2004.
  Additionally, Maryland is one of only six universities to win a National Championship in both basketball and football (UCLA, Michigan, Michigan State, Syracuse, Ohio State and Maryland).
- Maryland was ranked as the sixth-finest athletic program in the nation by the Laboratory for the Study of Intercollegiate Athletics in 2004, based on comprehensive criteria such as graduation rates, financial efficiency, equity effectiveness and competitive excellence.
- Hired the Associated Press National Coach of the Year, Brenda Frese, as the new women's basketball coach. In her third season at the helm, her team drew more than 17,243 to a regular-season game and advanced to the NCAA Tournament.
- Hired Dave Cottle, the third-winningest active men's lacrosse coach in the U.S., who guided his team to two NCAA Final Four's in his four years at Maryland.
- Field Hockey played for the National Championship in 2001 and continues to be a Final Four team.
- Women's Lacrosse has continued its winning ways with seven national championships from 1995-2001, with additional Final Four appearances.
- Football facilities have been significantly enhanced with team house, stadium and practice field upgrades. The Academic Center was the first improvement, as it took priority over all other initiatives.
- The Terrapins have moved into the new $125 million Comcast Center, housing athletic department offices and seating for 18,000 fans for basketball and other events.
- In 2004-05, 13 Maryland teams competed in NCAA postseason play.
- The productivity, morale, and the competitive and academic achievement of Terrapin athletics are exceptional and continue to gain momentum.

Regarding the many achievements of Terrapin athletics over the past 11 years, Yow says, "We are pleased, but we are not satisfied... our vision is to be one of the Top 5 programs in the nation consistently... we see no reason to settle for less."

Yow is known for her goal-oriented and proactive management style. She consistently inspires and challenges those around her to "raise our sights and sharpen our tools... to work hard and smart... to recognize that our only limitations are those that we place upon ourselves."

As a manager and a leader, she clearly models these principles. She is the only known current AD in NCAA Division I who has hired both the National Coach of the Year in football (while at Maryland) and the National Coach of the Year in men's basketball (while at Saint Louis University). Yow is known as "a coach's AD," while also being highly organized and a strategic and proactive leader and administrator. Quite simply, Debbie Yow personifies the relational and management dynamics that are necessary to be an excellent administrator.

A successful former basketball coach at the University of Kentucky and University of Florida, she moved into athletics administration at the University of Florida and the University of North Carolina, Greensboro, followed by a successful tenure as AD at Saint Louis University from 1990 through 1994.

She has authored numerous articles and books on athletics management and human behavior, and is a respected leader in intercollegiate athletics in the United States.

Summing up the entire Maryland athletics program, our athletics director recently stated, "We have the finest student-athletes, coaches, support staff and administrative team in America. It is because of their courage, hard work and cooperative spirit that we now have a strong, viable athletic program. I am immensely proud of each of them. I am equally proud of our Terrapin fans who buy tickets, our Terrapin Club members who faithfully support the Maryland athletic program with their donations for scholarships, and the M Club members who serve and give liberally. We are also blessed with a terrific President, Dr. Dan Mote, who has fostered a mindset of excellence across our institution. He is a strong and balanced advocate for what he calls 'the three A's of the University -- Academics, the Arts and Athletics'. We have a great Terrapin family. That's the foundation for all of our success... and the basis for our bright future. It's a great time to be a Terp."

ATHLETIC DEVELOPMENT

TERRAPIN CLUB

Athletic excellence is a tradition at the University of Maryland—a tradition alumni and friends alike want to see continue and flourish. That's why we are inviting you to be a member of the Maryland Athletics Family by joining the Terrapin Club. Whether you are an alumnus of the University of Maryland or a friend interested in supporting the state's flagship campus, belonging to the Terrapin Club enables you to:

- Provide annual scholarship support for our student-athletes who will contribute to the community
- Share our vision to fully scholarship all sports to best represent the University
- Take pride in the achievement of athletic excellence
- Participate in the camaraderie and fellowship unique to Terrapin Club members
- Receive a tax deduction for your financial contribution for scholarships
- Enjoy access to great benefits including priority seating in Byrd Stadium for football and Comcast Center for basketball, priority parking and tickets to other events

At Maryland, the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics operates without significant University funding and receives no state appropriations or tax dollars for operational expenses. Sanctioned by the University of Maryland College Park Foundation, 100% of the funds raised through the Terrapin Club are managed by the Foundation for the exclusive use of Maryland Athletics. Your contribution directly supports an annual student-athlete scholarship cost of over $8 million and Terrapin Club and department expenses. The Terrapin Club provides scholarship support to many of the 700 student-athletes who compete on 27 varsity team representing the University of Maryland.

GETTING INVOLVED

Direct Gifts are the most common way of contributing. They are made in the form of cash, stock, checks or credit card (Visa, MasterCard, American Express or Discover). For your convenience, a personal checking account can be debited a set amount every month.

In many cases, corporate matching gifts may be used to make your Terrapin Club contribution. Please contact your employer to see if you are eligible for a matching gift program.

THE M CLUB
AN 82-YEAR TRADITION OF "ATHLETES HELPING ATHLETES"℠

The M Club was founded in 1923 by a group of former University of Maryland athletes led by Dr. H.C. "Curley" Byrd to encourage excellence in athletics. It is one of the oldest and most respected letterwinner clubs in the country with an organization of more than 4,500 former Maryland varsity athletes and a leader in the National Letter Winners Association.

The M Club goals are to help achieve the very best overall academic and athletic program for all the varsity teams, to aid the athletes in making positive contributions to the community, to obtain and maintain funds for awards and scholarships and to cultivate networking, social contact and good sportsmanship among the wearers of the "M."

Membership participation, through the payment of annual dues, helps build the scholarship endowment fund, support student-athletes' awards and recognition efforts and provide for career development initiatives. Members receive information about the current teams and news about former teammates through a monthly electronic newsletter and a quarterly printed newsletter.

In addition, active members receive information about, and discounts for, various M Club activities. Many benefits are intangible, though, including the satisfaction of having lettered at a great university and being a part of a unique and exclusive organization.

University of Maryland letterwinners interested in the M Club should call David Diehl at (301) 314-5372 or Dotti Warren at (301) 314-7020, or visit our website at www.themclub.org.

MAJOR GIFTS FUNDRAISING

The University of Maryland is about to launch its largest fund-raising campaign ever in our quest to be one of the top public research universities in the nation. The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics will have a challenging, major goal for private donations to the campaign. We are seeking gifts to improve our athletic facilites and endow scholarships for student-athletes to a level that matches the university's great expectations for the future.

During this new campaign, the Athletics Major Gifts staff will raise money for capital improvements to our football facilities, Varsity Team House, Ludwig Field, Shipley Field and others that will benefit our entire athletics program. Major gifts for facility renovation and scholarship endowment are an opportunity to have your name permanently and prominently linked with the tradition of Maryland Athletics. Many exciting naming opportunities for athletic facilities (such as Field Hockey/Women's Lacrosse Stadium and the Softball Stadium) are available in recognition of major gifts.

To obtain information on facility naming opportunities or endowments for student-athlete scholarships, please contact the Athletics Major Gifts Office at (301) 314-7020, or toll-free at 800-653-7667, or by e-mail at terrapinclub@umd.edu.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT & CAREER DEVELOPMENT

The University of Maryland is committed to providing the highest quality education to all of its students. The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics strives to provide student-athletes excellent opportunities to participate in an intercollegiate athletics program of the highest quality, with the result that their athletics participation becomes an integral and valued component of their total educational experience at the university.

Terrapin student-athletes will find that the same hard work and discipline that has earned them success in athletics competition is also required in the classroom. Balancing the significant time demands and responsibilities required to be a successful student-athlete at the highest collegiate level is no small task. Therefore, as a result of their commitment to representing the university through athletics, Terrapin student-athletes are able to utilize support programs designed to meet their specific needs.

Led by assistant athletics director Anton Goff, the mission of the Academic Support and Career Development Unit (ASCDU) is to provide quality developmental programs and need-based services that will enhance academic progress, facilitate career development, and encourage the psychosocial growth of all UM student-athletes. Laura Meckley (right) works with the women's basketball team.

The Gossett Academic Support and Career Development Center for Terrapin student-athletes, named for long-time Terp supporters Barry and Mary Gossett, is located in the Comcast Center. It features a study center that includes 25 desktop computers, a tutoring center, a classroom, a CHAMPS/Life Skills resource room and individual offices for six professional academic counselors, a director of enrichment programs, an assistant program coordinator and two graduate assistants. In addition, a new academic wing was added to the Gossett football team house last Fall. It features offices for two counselors, a program assistant and the learning specialist; as well as a quiet study area, 29-desk computer lab, classroom, tutor rooms and classroom/lab for the individualized learning program.

Academic courses, programs and services offered by ASCDU include the following:

- Student-athlete orientation
- Academic counseling
- NCAA academic eligibility monitoring
- Academic enrichment and career development presentations and workshops
- Accredited tutorial support
- Individualized learning program
- EDCP 108-K (College learning strategies and skills)
- EDCP 108-M (Math learning strategies and skills)
- UNIV 100 (First-year transitions to the university)

MARYLAND GAMEPLAN

The Maryland Gameplan is intended to assist graduating Terrapin student-athletes as they begin the job search process. It is distributed to more than 500 corporations and businesses across the country, in addition to being featured on the M Club website. Prospective employers are introduced to our graduating student-athletes with resume information relative to academic, career and personal achievements. The Maryland Gameplan directory is produced annually in collaboration with the M Club.

CAREER NETWORKING NIGHT

Because career development is an ongoing process, ASCDU provides a variety of programs for student-athletes throughout the year. Professional assistance with resume-writing, interviewing skills, graduate school search and job search is readily available to all student-athletes. During the spring semester ASCDU hosts the Career Networking Night, where student-athletes can learn about career interests and career planning. Unlike typical "job fairs," the purpose of this program is to allow student-athletes to explore multiple career opportunities by speaking directly to individuals in their chosen areas of interest. Employers at the Career Networking Night recognize the marketable qualities student-athletes have gained through athletic participation. Student-athletes learn about opportunities for internships and full-time jobs.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ADVISORY COUNCIL

The Student-Athlete Advisory Council (S.A.A.C.) plays an important role in the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. It consists of two representatives from each varsity sport and meets on a regular basis with representatives from the athletic administration. The S.A.A.C. mission is to enhance the total student-athlete experience by developing leadership skills, promoting student-athlete welfare and fostering a positive student-athlete image on the Maryland campus, local area and nationally.

CHAMPS/LIFE SKILLS PROGRAMS

ASCDU houses the NCAA's (National Collegiate Athletic Association) Challenging Athletes' Minds for Personal Success (C.H.A.M.P.S.) Life Skills Program. The ASCDU staff, in collaboration with various other Department of Intercollegiate Athletics' units and campus resources, strives to provide a systematic personal development program designed to reach each student-athlete based on his or her individual needs. The focus of the program is on the individual academically, athletically and emotionally, and on the changing needs and skills of that individual in the years during college and after graduation. The menu of presentations, workshops and seminars is a comprehensive and balanced system of "life learning" programs promoted for use by each varsity sport team.

NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills PROGRAM

Highlights of the CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs:

- Support efforts of every student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation
- Use athletics as preparation for success in life
- Meet the changing needs of student-athletes
- Promote respect for diversity among student-athletes
- Enhance interpersonal relationships in the lives of student-athletes
- Assist student-athletes in building positive self-esteem
- Enable student-athletes to make meaningful contributions to their communities
- Promote ownership by the student-athletes of their academic, athletic, personal and social responsibilities
- Enhance partnerships between the NCAA, member institutions and their communities for the purpose of education
- Encourage the development of leadership skills

CHAMPS/LIFE SKILLS PROGRAMS COMMITMENT STATEMENTS

Commitment to Academic Excellence
To support the academic progress of the student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation.

Commitment to Athletic Excellence
To build philosophical foundations for the development of athletic programs that are broad-based, equitable and dedicated to the well-being of the student-athlete.

Commitment to Personal Development
To support the development of a well-balanced lifestyle for student-athletes, encouraging emotional well-being, personal growth and decision-making skills.

Commitment to Career Development
To encourage the student-athlete to develop and pursue career and life goals.

Commitment to Service
To engage student-athletes in service to his/her campus and surrounding communities.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT FOR RETURNING ATHLETES PROGRAM

The Academic Support for Returning Athletes Program was created in 1986 to support the academic efforts of former varsity student-athletes at the University of Maryland, College Park. In 1989, ASRAP was assigned by the President's Office to the Academic Achievements Program and enrolled 40 students that year. As a member of the National Consortium for Academics and Sports (NCAS), the University of Maryland is committed to assisting its former athletes with degree completion. A key component of the program is community outreach. Each returning student completes a "workship" that allows the cost of tuition and fees to be exchanged for community services with youth. In 2002, ASRAP moved into the ASCDU.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

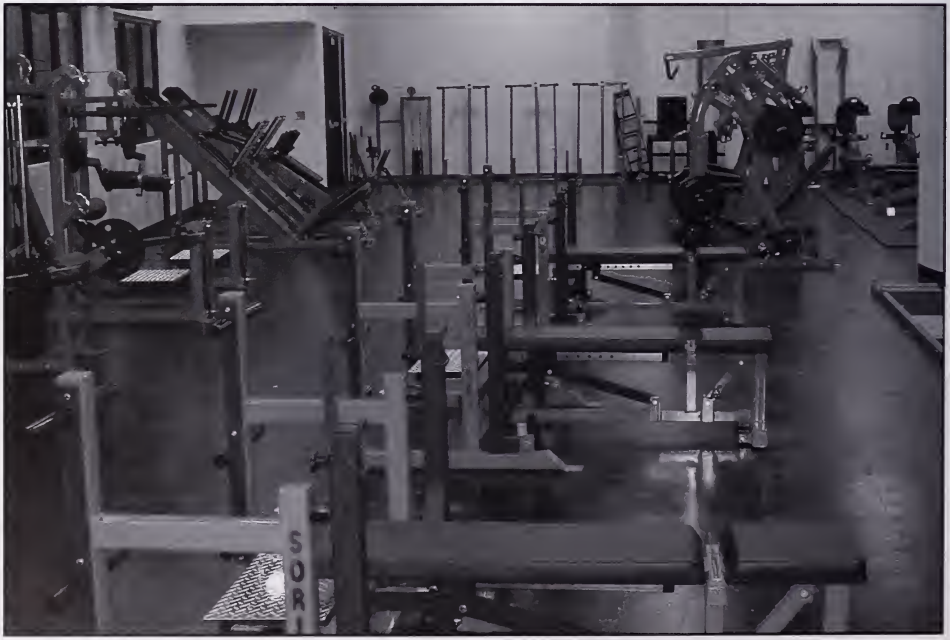
In the highly competitive world of collegiate basketball, the off-court preparation of the basketball athlete is a critical component in the on-court success of any Division I program. Corliss White, Maryland's strength and conditioning coach for women's basketball, believes strongly that a solid off-court training program can dramatically improve levels of performance, as well as significantly reduce the chance of injury. The benefit of performing structured strength and power training throughout the entire year has allowed the Terps to reach new levels in physical development and, in turn, has resulted in great success on the basketball court.

Corliss White

White's philosophy consists of allowing the players to gain strength, speed and change of direction capabilities through drills that are basketball oriented. She believes that the team must be prepared to run and play the up-tempo style of basketball that is Brenda Frese's trademark. White trains the team so that it will be able to play up to Frese's style.

The Terps' new state-of-the-art weight room at Comcast Center.

The members of the women's basketball team have the use of a fully-equipped weight training facility located down the hall from the women's basketball office and the team's locker room in Comcast Center. The conveniently located 4,000 sq. foot facility features a combination of Sorinex weight training equipment and York free weight equipment. The strength staff utilizes this facility specifically during the season as basketball team members are personally trained before, during and after the season.



SPORTS MEDICINE

The University of Maryland Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and the University of Maryland Medical Center's Sports Medicine program have joined forces to provide the best possible medical attention and care to all Terrapin student-athletes.

Says Deborah A. Yow, Maryland's director of athletics: "When we recruit student-athletes to play for Maryland, we owe them the best education, the best coaching and the best comprehensive health care. It is especially gratifying for us to partner with our medical center in the same fashion as other ACC institutions do with their medical schools."

CRAIG BENNETT, M.D.

HEAD TEAM PHYSICIAN/ ORTHOPAEDIC SURGEON SECOND YEAR

Craig H. Bennett, M.D., is in his second season as the head team physician and orthopaedic surgeon for Maryland. Dr. Bennett is the Chief of Orthopaedic Sports Medicine at the University of Maryland School of Medicine and has also served as the head orthopaedic surgeon for the NFL's Baltimore Ravens. Prior to his arrival at Maryland, Dr. Bennett was at the University of Pittsburgh where he served as an assistant professor of orthopaedics, as a team physician for Pittsburgh's athletic department and as the associate team physician for the Pittsburgh Steelers.

A native of Buffalo, N.Y., Dr. Bennett graduated with honors from Brown University in 1985. He earned his medical degree from the University of California at San Francisco and completed his residency in orthopaedic surgery at Emory University in Atlanta, Georgia. He then completed a sports medicine-knee and shoulder fellowship at the University of Pittsburgh and subsequently stayed on staff at Pittsburgh for five years. While at Pittsburgh, he also served as the team physician for the men's basketball team.

Dr. Bennett was selected to the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons Leadership Fellows Program in 2003-04 and Towson University honored him as their African-American Scholar of the Year in 2004. He is a board certified member of the American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery and a member of the NFL Team Physicians Association

YVETTE ROOKS, M.D.

PRIMARY CARE PHYSICIAN EIGHTH YEAR

Dr. Yvette Rooks is in her eighth year as a primary care physician for Maryland's athletics programs. Dr. Rooks graduated from Update Medical School/Health Science Center in Syracuse, N.Y., in 1993. She completed her residency in family medicine and a sports medicine fellowship at the University of Maryland, Baltimore, and is currently an assistant professor in the Department of Family Medicine at the University of Maryland School of Medicine.

In addition, Rooks the Residency Program Director in the Department of Family Medicine at University of Maryland Medical School. She also serves as the Director of the Primary Care Sports Medicine Fellowship.

Rooks graduated with honors from the State University of New York at Albany where she was a four-year starter on the volleyball team. She currently lives in Ellicott City, Md., and has an eight-year old daughter, Madison.

JAMES DREESE, M.D.

ORTHOPAEDIC SURGEON FIRST YEAR

Dr. Dreese joined Maryland's sports medicine team in the summer of 2005 following two years as an orthopaedic physician in Charlotte, N.C. Dr. Dreese, a sports medicine fellowship trained physician, specializes in innovative arthroscopic surgery.

Most recently, Dr. Dreese worked in the sports medicine and shoulder and elbow services of the Carolinas Medical Center as well as in a private orthopaedic clinic. He was also active as a team physician for several school and university sports teams. Dr. Dreese is an assistant professor of orthopaedics at the University of Maryland School of Medicine.

A former player and varsity letterman of the Penn State football team, Dr. Dreese gained specialized training and skill in treating problems of the shoulder, knee and elbow as a sports medicine fellow at the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center and an orthopaedic resident at the Hospital for Special Surgery in New York City. Dr. Dreese earned his medical degree from the Pennsylvania State University College of Medicine in Hershey.

In addition to treating patients, Dr. Dreese contributes to the practice of sports medicine through research. He has lectured throughout the county and has written articles that have been published in journals such as The American Journal of Sports Medicine, The American Journal of Shoulder and Elbow Surgery and Operative Techniques in Orthopaedics.

CREDENTIALS

Credentials and working space for media members are issued at the sole and exclusive discretion of the University of Maryland Athletics Media Relations Office. Issuance of credentials may be based on the following priorities and guidelines:

1. Originating radio and television personnel involved in a live broadcast.

2. Daily newspapers regularly covering the University of Maryland, the current-game opponent or another Atlantic Coast Conference school. Wire services, regional and national publications are also afforded this priority.

3. Non-originating radio and television personnel producing reports on the game. Only local radio stations with a full-time sports director conducting a regular sports show receive consideration for credentials.

4. Officially recognized University of Maryland daily student publications or student electronic media outlets with daily sports reports.

5. Non-daily newspapers or publications reporting on the game.

OTHER GUIDELINES

• Season media credentials are issued to those outlets which cover Maryland Athletics on a regular basis. They do not guarantee working space in media work areas.

• With the exception of Terrapin beat reporters covering the team on a daily basis and producing daily reports, all passes are approved and issued on a game-by-game basis.

• Passes are non-transferable and are subject to immediate revocation if transferred to non-working members of a media outlet.

• Due to limited space and to ensure compliance with NCAA guidelines, no credentials will be issued to "freelance" writers or photographers without a specific assignment received in writing by the assigning organization.

• The University of Maryland and the NCAA prohibit the issuance of credentials to representatives of an organization that regularly publishes gambling information, such as "tout sheets" or "tip sheets."

• Credentials are issued to web sites that are affiliated with national or regional media organizations, e.g. USA Today.com, ESPN.com, CBS SportsLine, etc., for web sites of Atlantic Coast Conference schools or non-conference opponents, or for the Atlantic Coast Conference office.

• Web sites that sponsor "message boards" or "chat rooms" where people are allowed to post anonymous information or rumors are ineligible for credentials or access to media functions. If a news-gathering medium has an online site that sponsors these anonymous forums, they may continue to request credentials under their traditional medium (newspaper, magazine, radio or television), but will not be granted additional passes or access for online staff.

• All persons picking up credentials will be required to furnish positive identification. All credentials are non-transferable, and no credentials will be issued to those under the age of 18.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Credential requests must be made by sports editors or sports directors on official letterhead no later than five days prior to an event. They should be sent to the Athletic Media Relations Office, University of Maryland, 2725 Comcast Center, College Park, MD 20741-0295. They may also be faxed to 301-314-9094. No credential requests will be accepted via e-mail or by phone.

GAME DAY PRESS PARKING

Game Day parking is recommended on the north side of Comcast Center, best accessed from the University Drive (Rt. 193) entrance to campus at Paint Branch Drive. Parking is free and open to the public.

PHOTOGRAPHY REGULATIONS

All photographers and camera operators must remain seated in baseline photo areas, as per NCAA regulations. Locations will be assigned for more crowded games. Photographer and videographer positions are at the complete and absolute discretion of the basketball game officials and the Maryland media relations office at all times, without exception.

The NCAA has established a policy to control congestion in photography areas. Priority shall be given, in all instances, to photographers and videographers on assignment. Only game photographers (no runners, assistants or producers) shall have access to courtside photo areas.

Strobe lights may be installed in Comcast Center, but arrangements must be made through the media relations office two weeks in advance. Space for strobe lights is available on a first-come, first-served basis.

PRESS SEATING

Press seating is located on the basketball floor in the northeast corner of the arena. The area is manned by members of the Media Relations Office throughout the game. The Media Relations staff desires to help the media be as comfortable as possible during each game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

The NCAA has established a policy to control congestion in the photography areas on the basketball court. Only photographers on assignment, along with members of working television media, are given photo passes. Admission to the court and the photo boxes is by photo pass only. Photographers, both still and electronic, must shoot from the baselines at the northwest (Maryland bench end/directly in front of press seating) and southeast (visiting bench) corners of the court. Photographer's floor access is governed by Atlantic Coast Conference policy. Please note that only game photographers (no runners, assistants or producers) will have access to the photography areas. Photographers are also welcome to shoot from the photo deck on the west side of Comcast Center. Access to the photo deck is from the concourse level opposite the team benches. Photographer positions are at the complete discretion of the basketball game officials and the Media Relations Office AT ALL TIMES. Failure to comply with their directions will result in expulsion from the arena.

IN-SEASON INTERVIEW POLICIES

All Maryland players and head coach Brenda Frese will be available for interviews with accredited members of the media throughout the season. ALL INTERVIEW REQUESTS must be made through the Media Relations Office, contacting Natalia Ciccone. Please give a minimum of 24 hours notice. Player's individual phone numbers will not be given to the
